PAUL'S WORK.

PREFACE.

THE COUNTY DIRECTORY has been unavoidably delayed, in consequence of the death of Mr FINDLAY, the original projector of the work. The information collected by him has been revised, with a view to correction, up to the latest possible period, by Mr THOMSON, of the General Post-Office, Edinburgh; and it is trusted that the different lists will be found as accurate as the extensive plan of such an undertaking would permit.

Seven years have elapsed since the last County Directory was issued; and a comparison of the two volumes will shew that the interval of publication has already exceeded its due limits, and that a new work was imperatively necessary. In addition to the usual Directory Lists, much useful intelligence relative to Post-Office arrangements, County and Poor-Law Statistics, Local Courts, &c., has been inserted; while the Population Returns for each town and county have been given, according to the Census of 1851.

To the numerous parties who have aided in the compilation of the work, the Publishers have to return their best thanks; and to them and to others they beg to intimate that any suggestions for its improvement will be carefully and gratefully attended to.

INLAND POSTAGE AND GENERAL REGULATIONS.

All Letters and Newspapers should bear a FULL and LEGIBLE ADDRESS, the name of the post-town, as well as the sub-office, being put on them, to facilitate despatch, and insure a speedy delivery.

INLAND LETTERS and PACKETS, including those from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, are subject to the following rates of postage:—

Exceeding	Not Exceeding	Prepaid.		Unpaid.
		s.	d.	s.	d.
	$\frac{1}{2}$ ounce	0	1	0	2
$\frac{1}{2}$ ounce	1 ...	0	2	0	4
1 ...	2 ...	0	4	0	8
2 ...	3 ...	0	6	1	0
3 ...	4 ...	0	8	1	4
4 ...	5 ...	0	10
5 ...	6 ...	1	0
6 ...	7 ...	1	2
7 ...	8 ...	1	4
8 ...	9 ...	1	6
9 ...	10 ...	1	8
10 ...	11 ...	1	10
11 ...	12 ...	2	0
12 ...	13 ...	2	2
13 ...	14 ...	2	4
14 ...	15 ...	2	6
and so on, increasing 2d per oz.

There is no limit to the weight of paid letters, but unpaid letters must not exceed four ounces; any letter posted above that weight UNPAID shall be detained, opened, and charged double the prepaid rate, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned to the sender, or given to the person to whom it is addressed.

LIMITATION OF SIZE.

A letter, to pass by the post, either paid or unpaid, must not exceed the dimensions of twenty-four inches in length or breadth. Any letter above those dimensions may, if fully paid, be detained and opened, or forwarded at the option of the Postmaster-General. The only exceptions to the above regulations as to size and weight of letters, are petitions or addresses to her Majesty, and petitions to either House of Parliament, addressed to Members, which go free under 32 oz. weight—letters or packets to or from the public departments or public officers on her Majesty's service—letters to or from places abroad.

ADHESIVE STAMPS AND ENVELOPES.

Letters enclosed in stamped covers, or having stamps affixed to them, the stamps in every such case being equal to the rates of postage chargeable on such letters, will pass free of all other postage charge, in whatever part of the United Kingdom they may be posted.

In those cases where the value of the stamps on the letter is less than the amount of postage to which it is properly liable, the letter will be charged double the amount of such deficiency on delivery. The same rule applies to letters under-paid in money.

Adhesive stamps should be placed on the front of the letter, and upon the right-hand corner of the upper side; and care should be taken that they firmly adhere to the letter. The better method is to wet the letter, not the stamp.

Letters cannot be paid partly in money and partly in stamps, but must be wholly paid either way.

Every Postmaster, Sub-Postmaster, and Letter-Receiver, without exception, will sell the Postage Label Stamps and Envelopes to the Public at the following Prices:—

The Penny Label Stamps at 1d each.
The Twopenny ditto . . .	2d.
Tenpenny ditto . . .	10d.
Shilling ditto . . .	1s.
The Penny Envelopes, 24 for 2s. 3d, or 2 for 2½d.

TOO LATE LETTERS, AND CLOSING OF LETTER BOXES.

TOO LATE LETTERS posted at the provincial offices must be paid by attaching the requisite number of postage stamps for the postage, as well as for the late-letter fee, and are in time if put into the late-letter box fifteen minutes after the closing of the box, with an additional penny stamp affixed, and with three additional stamps they are in time till ten minutes before the despatch of each mail. The general rule at provincial offices as to the closing of the box is half an hour previous to the despatch; but sometimes circumstances cause this to vary, and in rural offices the box is not closed till within ten minutes of the despatch.

REGISTERED LETTERS

The system of registration provides a secure mode of transmitting Bank Notes, Bank Post Bills, Drafts, &c. &c. The arrangements have been made with a view of insuring the punctual delivery of LETTERS OF VALUE; on their delivery, the parties to whom they may have been addressed will be required to acknowledge in writing their receipt. LETTERS OFFERED FOR REGISTRATION MUST HAVE THE FULL AMOUNT OF POSTAGE IN STAMPS AFFIXED THEREON, AND THE REGISTRATION FEE OF SIXPENCE MUST BE PAID IN MONEY.

Registered Letters will be taken at the General Post-Office, at the Receiving-Houses, and by all Postmasters throughout the United Kingdom, until within half an hour of the closing of the Box for the particular Mail or Bag by which they are to be despatched.

An acknowledgment by receipt will be given to the parties registering Letters, and each receipt must bear the Office stamp.

The practice of committing Letters containing valuable property to the Post-Office unregistered should in all cases be avoided. It is expected that persons having occasion to transmit such letters, will avail themselves of the proper means of security, and in no case, by committing property unregistered to the Letter-boxes, RISK ITS LOSS. If, however, notes are sent, parties are recommended to cut them in halves, and the second half should not be despatched until the receipt of the first has been acknowledged. The numbers, dates, and amount, should also be carefully taken.

NOTICES OF OBJECTION TO VOTERS

Can be registered for a fee of 2d, and must be posted half an hour earlier than the ordinary Letters.

SERVICE OF PARLIAMENTARY NOTICES.

These Notices may be sent through the Post, provided they are posted on or before the 12th of December, at the chief offices of London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, or one or other of the following Offices:—Birmingham, Bristol, Exeter, Lincoln, Liverpool, Leeds, Manchester, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Norwich, Shrewsbury, Aberdeen, Glasgow, Inverness, Athlone, Belfast, and Cork. The words "Parliamentary Notice" must be legibly printed on the face of the Letter; the postage must be prepaid in stamps, and a registration fee of 6d (in money) at the time of posting, which may be known by applying to the above offices. Duplicate lists of the Addresses must be sent with the notices, which must be arranged in same order as entered on the lists.

RE-DIRECTED LETTERS.

Re-directed letters are subject to additional rates of postage; but whether the letters have been originally prepaid or not, they are only liable to be charged at the prepaid rate for the additional postage.

OVERCHARGES, DELAYS, &c.

In all cases of complaint, whether arising from overcharges, delays, or other irregularities, the covers (and contents in all practicable cases) should be forwarded to the Secretary, General Post-Office, for investigation, as affording the only efficient means of answering such complaints satisfactorily. Overcharges are returned at the window of any Post-Office on presenting the cover, with the Secretary's authority written thereon.

LETTERS NOT TO BE DELIVERED BACK.

To prevent the possibility of Letters being surreptitiously obtained from the offices where put in, office-keepers are strictly forbid returning, to any person whomsoever, letters that may be applied for, under whatever circumstances the recovery may be urged. This is, moreover, forbidden by the established principle, that the instant a letter is committed to the Post, it is no longer the property of the sender.

ILLEGAL CONVEYANCE OF LETTERS.

By 1 Vict., c. 36, sec. 2, any person illegally conveying letters, incurs a penalty of £5 for every offence, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. The sender also incurs a penalty of £5 for every offence, with full Costs of Suit.

ARTICLES WHICH MAY NOT BE SENT BY POST.

Letters or Packets cannot be forwarded, conveyed, or delivered by the Post-Office, containing any of the following enclosures, viz.:—any Glass or Glass Bottle, any Razor, Scissors, Knife, Fork, or other sharp or pointed instrument; any Leeches, Game, Fish, Flesh, Fruit, Vegetables, or other perishable substance; any Bladder, or other vessel containing liquid; or any article, matter, or thing whatsoever, which might, by pressure, or otherwise, be rendered injurious to the Officers of the Post-Office, or to the contents of the mail bags; and the Act 3 and 4 Vict., c. 96, expressly directs that no letter shall be sent by Post containing any EXPLOSIVE OR OTHER DANGEROUS MATERIAL OR SUBSTANCE.

PRINTED BOOKS, UNDER CERTAIN REGULATIONS, FORWARDED AT A REDUCED RATE.

Books, Magazines, Reviews, and Pamphlets (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign), may be transmitted by the Post, within the United Kingdom, at the following reduced rates of Postage, viz:—

Not exceeding 1 pound in weight,	.	.	6d.
... .. 2 pounds	1s. 0d.
... .. 3	1s. 6d.

and so on; 6d. being charged for every complete pound, or part of a pound. Every such Packet must be sent without a Cover, or in a Cover open at the ends or sides. It must contain a Single Volume only, the several sheets or parts thereof, when there are more than one, being sewed or bound together.

It must not exceed two feet in length.

THE POSTAGE MUST BE PREPAID IN FULL BY AFFIXING ON THE PACKET OR ITS COVER THE PROPER STAMPS. The name and address of the Sender may be written or printed upon or in such book, &c., so sent, or on the Envelope thereof, in addition to the address.

Any other writing may be on any leaf of the Book, &c., or on the binding thereof, provided it be on one and the self-same page of the Book, or corresponding portion of the binding. If any of the above conditions are violated, the Packet must be charged and treated in every respect as a Letter.

To prevent any obstacles to the regular transmission of Letters, any Officer of the Post-Office may delay the transmission of any such Packet, for a time not exceeding twenty-four hours from the time it would otherwise have been forwarded.

NEWSPAPERS, AND SUPPLEMENTS TO NEWSPAPERS.

It is not compulsory to send Newspapers or their Supplements by Post; but those that are intended to be so transmitted must be sent in covers open at the sides; and no words of communication may be printed or written on such papers (except under the conditions hereafter explained) after the same shall have been published, when they are entitled to pass free.

Parties will be allowed, however, to put any Writing or Marks on Newspapers passing by Post, in the United Kingdom, provided that a Postage of a Penny be prepaid, BY MEANS OF A STAMP conspicuously affixed outside the Cover or folded Newspaper, it being understood that in those cases where the Newspaper may be liable to Postage, irrespective of such Writing or Marks (as when it is both posted and delivered in the same town), the Penny Stamp shall cover both the Writing and Postage. But this privilege is to be confined to Writing or Marks on the Newspaper itself, and not to extend to the Cover, which must contain nothing but the address.

Any Writing or Marks on the Cover, besides the address, or on the Newspaper (if not prepaid as above), will subject it to the same rate as that of an unpaid Letter, according to weight.

Newspapers pass free by the Edinburgh Local Posts, except in those cases where they shall be posted and delivered within the limits of the General Post delivery (which now includes Leith), when the Postage is one Penny on each Newspaper.

PRICES CURRENT and COMMERCIAL LISTS published in the United Kingdom, if duly stamped, and under the weight of two ounces, will be treated as Newspapers, and enjoy the Newspaper privileges, the sanction of the Postmaster-General having been previously obtained.

* * As the mere affixing a Newspaper Stamp on any new periodical publication will not entitle it, as a matter of course, to pass free by the Post, those who may be about to publish, for the first time, any such paper, should submit a copy to the Postmaster-General, in order that it may be determined whether the Publication is of a nature that will entitle it to pass free of postage.

Clause of the Act of 1 Victoria, cap. 34, sec. 32.—"And be it further enacted, that "in all cases, in which a question shall arise, whether a printed Paper is entitled to the "privileges of a Newspaper, or other Publication hereby privileged, so far as respects "the transmission thereof by the Post under the Post-Office Acts, the question shall be "referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision, with the concurrence of the Lords of the Treasury, shall be final."

Newspapers published in the Channel Islands and Isle of Man are now excluded from the Newspaper privileges, except such as may be printed in the French language, or are especially allowed by the Postmaster-General, on a Penny Stamp being put on them.

PRINTED VOTES and PROCEEDINGS of the IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT, or of the COLONIAL LEGISLATURES, are charged,—

Under four ounces,	1d.
Above four and under eight ounces,	2d.
Above eight and under twelve ounces,	3d., and so on.

Such Votes and Proceedings, whether paid or unpaid, pass at these rates between places in the United Kingdom, as well as to the Colonies, by PACKET. The Postmaster-General is authorised (if he shall see fit) to delay the transmission of Printed Votes and Proceedings in Parliament for any space not exceeding twenty-four hours from the time at which the same would otherwise have been forwarded.

MONEY ORDERS.

The Commission chargeable for Money Orders is threepence on sums not exceeding £2; and on sums above £2, and not exceeding £5, sixpence. No Order will be given for sums beyond this amount.

The Money Order Office, and the system of Registration, have been devised expressly for the security of Money and other valuable property transmitted through the Post-Office. With the great convenience thus afforded for transmitting small sums at so low a charge, and the power given of Registering Letters containing value, it is hoped the public will no longer forward letters of value except in one or other of these methods.

In all cases where personal attendance is inconvenient, if the Money Order is receipted by the person to whom it is made payable, and the party presenting it for payment can afford full information as to the Christian name, surname, address, and occupation of the person who originally obtained the Order, payment will be made; but unless these conditions are strictly complied with, it will be refused. Any Money Order presented through a bank will be paid, without the name of the remitter and the signature in full of the Christian name of the payer being insisted upon as a condition of payment, provided that the bank is situated in the town on which the Money Order is drawn, that the Order be crossed with the banker's name, and that the party applying at the Money Order Office be known there as in the employment of the bank. It must be understood, however, that in all such cases the liability of the Post-Office will absolutely terminate with the Payment of the Order so presented.

With a view to simplicity and economy in the accounts of the Money Order Office, it has been found necessary to lay down the following Rules:—

1. Every Money Order issued on or after the 6th October 1848, must be presented for payment before the end of the second calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in October, it must be presented for payment before the end of December), otherwise a new Order will be necessary, for which a second Commission must be paid.
2. If an Order be not presented for payment before the end of the twelfth calendar month after that in which it was issued (for instance, if issued in October, and not presented before the end of the next October), the money will not be paid at all.
3. As, after once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office will not be liable to any further claim, the public are strictly cautioned—
 - a. To take all means to prevent the loss of the Money Order.
 - b. Never to send a Money Order in the same letter with the information required on payment thereof.
 - c. To be careful, on taking out a Money Order, to state correctly the Christian name as well as the surname of the person in whose favour it is to be drawn.
 - d. To see that the name, address, and occupation, of the person taking out the Money Order are correctly known to the person in whose favour it is to be drawn.
4. Neglect of these instructions will lead to delay and trouble in obtaining payment, and even risk the loss of the Money.

These instructions, together with some others of minor importance, will be found printed on every Money Order.

The following is the list of places in Scotland, England, Wales, and Ireland, upon which alone Money Orders can be drawn, and at which they can be issued. A Money Order intended for a person residing at a place in which there is no Money Order Office, should be drawn upon the Post-Town nearest to it which may have a Money Order Office:—

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL LETTERS AND NEWSPAPERS.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

The prepayment of postage is optional to many parts abroad, Foreign as well as Colonial. For information on this point, reference may be made to the List of Foreign Places, commencing at page 287.

Letters for the Colonies and Foreign Countries posted unpaid, although specially addressed to be forwarded by routes which require the postage to be paid in advance, will not, if there are any means of transmitting them, be opened and returned to the writers for payment of such postage, but will be despatched if possible by other routes unpaid.

WEIGHT OF LETTERS.

Letters being now charged by weight in this country, as well as abroad, the British scale of progression is as follows:—

Not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., one Rate.

Do. do. 1 oz., two Rates.

And two Rates for every succeeding oz.

The French and Belgian scale of progression is as follows:—

Under $\frac{1}{4}$ oz., one Rate.

Weighing $\frac{1}{4}$ oz., under $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., two Rates.

And one Rate for every succeeding $\frac{1}{4}$ oz.

In charging the British and Foreign COMBINED rates, it is to be observed, that a letter will be liable to two Foreign rates if it reaches the $\frac{1}{4}$ oz. (the single rate being under that weight), whereas two British rates are not chargeable unless the letter exceeds a $\frac{1}{2}$ oz. (the limit for a single British rate); so that a letter, to be subject to a single Foreign rate, as well as British, must be under a $\frac{1}{4}$ oz. The following shews the method of taking the postage on letters for France and Belgium:—

FRANCE,	{	under $\frac{1}{4}$ of	{	British, 0s. 5d.	}	reaching $\frac{1}{4}$ of	{	British, 0s. 5d.	}
		an ounce.		Foreign, 0s. 5d.		an ounce.		Foreign, 0s. 10d.
				0s. 10d.				1s. 3d.
BELGIUM,	{	under $\frac{1}{4}$ of	{	British, 0s. 4d.	}	reaching $\frac{1}{4}$ of	{	British, 0s. 4d.	}
		an ounce.		Foreign, 0s. 2d.		an ounce.		Foreign, 0s. 4d.
				0s. 6d.				0s. 8d.

SHIP LETTERS.

The rates of postage on "Ship," as on other letters, are taken by weight. The single uniform rate on ship letters between the United Kingdom and any place beyond seas (except those for France, Belgium, Holland, Hamburg, Bremen, Brunswick, Hanover, Denmark, Oldenburg, Lubeck, and Mecklenburg-Schwerin, to which places the rate is the same as by packet), when conveyed by private ship, is 8d. under the $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., 1s. 4d. under 1 oz., 2s. 8d. under 2 oz., and so on, in whatever part of the United Kingdom the same may be posted or delivered. Letters intended to be conveyed by "private ship" should be so addressed.

PERSONS EXEMPT FROM SHIP LETTER POSTAGE.

The OWNERS, CHARTERERS, or CONSIGNEES (resident in the United Kingdom), and the OWNERS, CONSIGNEES, and SHIPPERS of Goods on board Vessels inward bound, are entitled to receive their Letters free from SEA Postage, to the extent collectively of Six ounces in Weight, by any One Vessel to any One such PERSON. In the case of Vessels coming from Ceylon, the Mauritius, the East Indies, or the Cape of Good Hope, for an OWNER, CHARTERER, or CONSIGNEE of such Vessel, the letters may be collectively Twenty ounces in weight. The OWNER, CHARTERER, or CONSIGNEE must be described as such on the address and superscription; and in the case of OWNERS, SHIPPERS, or CONSIGNEES of goods, it must also appear by the Ship's Manifest that they have Goods on board the Vessel. Such persons are entitled to have their Letters which come within the above Conditions before the Master of the Vessel delivers the other Letters in his charge to the Post-Office.

* * Every Person who shall, with intent to evade any Duty of Postage, falsely superscribe a Letter as being the OWNER or the CHARTERER, or the CONSIGNEE of a Vessel conveying the same, or as the OWNER, or the SHIPPER, or the CONSIGNEE of Goods shipped in such Vessel, shall, for every such offence, forfeit TEN POUNDS.

LETTERS NOT TO BE SEALED WITH WAX WHEN SENT TO WARM CLIMATES.

The practice of sealing letters which pass to and from the East Indies, and other warm climates, with wax, leads to much inconvenience, from the melting of the wax, and the letters adhering to each other. The public, therefore, are recommended, in all such cases, to use wafers instead of wax, and to advise their correspondents to do the same.

ADHESIVE STAMPS AND ENVELOPES.

Stamps may be used to pay Foreign or Colonial Letters OUTWARDS, but care must be taken that, by the addition of such stamps, the letters do not exceed the weight intended to be paid for. In those cases in which the value of the stamps on the letter is less than the amount of postage chargeable, they will, if prepayment is not compulsory, be forwarded charged with the difference. In cases where the prepayment is compulsory, they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office, and opened and returned to the writers for the proper postage. Stamps are not permitted to be used on letters arriving in the United Kingdom from the colonies or foreign countries. Whenever, therefore, such letters bear any, they will be charged the full rate of postage, without regard to such stamps. These regulations will be applicable to newspapers in those cases where they are liable to postage.

NEWSPAPERS AND PRICES CURRENT TO THE COLONIES AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Newspapers and Prices Current, duly stamped and authorised, provided the regulations are complied with, and they are posted within seven days of their publication, may be forwarded to the colonies and to foreign countries, by post-office packets or private ships. To the British colonies they are forwarded free, except in cases where the conveyance is by private ship, as also to many foreign countries, which will be found in the Lists. But to all places to which newspapers are not sent free, the postage on them must be paid in advance. Newspapers and Prices Current, duly stamped, to the colonies, by PRIVATE SHIP, are charged one penny each. To France, Belgium, Holland, and countries through Holland, by PRIVATE SHIP, one penny each. Chili, Peru, Guatemala, Western Coast of America, Venezuela, St Helena, St Mary's, River Gambia, Sierra Leone, Cape Coast Castle, Fernando Po, and Ascension Island, one penny each. All other places not British, by PRIVATE SHIP, twopence each, which must be prepaid.

The undermentioned printed PRICES CURRENT having obtained the sanction of the Lords of the Treasury, pass through the Post-Office to the colonies and foreign countries at one penny each, provided they contain simply the names and prices of articles. The names and addresses of the parties dealing in such articles must be excluded:—

Annual Supplement to Prices Current.
British Ships entered inwards and cleared outwards from and to places within the limits of the East India Company's charter.
Commercial Daily List.
Lloyd's List.
London New Price Current.

London Mercantile Price Current.
Mercantile Journal.
Nicholson's New Price Current.
Prince's Price Current.
Sound List.
Trades' List.
Universal Corn Reporter.
Wetenhall's Course of the Exchange.

Each copy to be made up in the same way as a newspaper, with cover open at the sides.

The title of the publication must be written or printed immediately above the address; and any other writing than such address, name, initial, or mark for reference of any kind, calculated to convey information as to the party by whom such publication is forwarded, will subject the same to full letter rates of postage.

Prices Current cannot be forwarded a second time without being charged full letter postage.

Prices Current from any colony or place abroad by private ship, are charged the same rate as newspapers. Prices Current from any British colony by packet, direct to any place in the United Kingdom, one penny each.

Prices Current from any foreign country by packet (except France, Belgium, Holland, and China), direct to the United Kingdom, twopence each.

Prices Current, from whatever part (except China), received by way of France, Belgium, Holland, or Hamburg, twopence each.

PERIODICAL PUBLICATIONS, &c.

Periodical works, unstamped, and not of daily publication, parliamentary proceedings, &c., may be forwarded to and from France, Belgium, Bremen (via Hamburg), Hamburg, Lubeck (via Hamburg), Oldenburg, Holland, Prussia (via Holland), and the United States (but not to countries passing through), under the following regulations:—

1st, The postage must be paid in advance (except those inward).

2d, They must be sent in covers open at the sides, for examination.

3d, They must be printed in the English language, or the language of the country from which they are sent.

The rate on such works will be as follows:—

Not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, one penny.

Not exceeding 3 oz. in weight, sixpence.

And twopence for every additional ounce to 16 inclusive, beyond which weight no publication can be forwarded except paid for as letters.

Plates of fashions, music, &c., accompanying newspapers and periodicals, are to be considered as part of such publication, and are not liable to extra charge. Prints published with newspapers, and duly stamped, may be sent by post separately as a newspaper; but those bearing the supplement stamp of $\frac{1}{2}$ d. only must be sent with the paper it belongs to, and be under the weight of two ounces.

Periodicals posted without previous payment will be forwarded as unpaid letters, and no single pamphlet, or work unnumbered, and without reference to its continuance at any other time or period, can be considered or taken to be a periodical.

PAMPHLETS, although not published periodically, may be forwarded to the UNITED STATES at the same rates as above, when not exceeding eight ounces.

PRINTED VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT, AND OF THE COLONIAL LEGISLATURES,

Whether paid or unpaid, pass at the same rates to the colonies, by packet, as between places in the United Kingdom. Where there are no packets, they may be forwarded by private ships at double these rates. They are not, however, forwarded to places through France, under the full rates of letter postage. The following are the rates chargeable:—

Under 4 oz., 1d.

Above 4 oz. and under 8 oz., 2d.

Above 8 oz. and under 12 oz., 3d.—and so on.

BOOKS SENT AT REDUCED RATES TO CERTAIN COLONIES.

Printed books, magazines, reviews, and pamphlets (whether British, colonial, or foreign) may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and

THE BRITISH WEST INDIES.		IONIAN ISLANDS via SOUTHAMPTON.

At the following reduced rates of postage, viz. :—

For each packet not exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ pound weight	0s. 6d.
— — Exceeding $\frac{1}{2}$ pound and not exceeding 1 pound,	1s. 0d.
— — Exceeding 1 pound and not exceeding 2 pounds,	2s. 0d.
— — Exceeding 2 pounds and not exceeding 3 pounds,	3s. 0d.

and so on, increasing 1s. for every additional pound or fraction of a pound ; provided, nowever, that the following conditions be carefully observed :—

- 1st, Every such packet must be sent without a cover, or in a cover open at the ends or sides.
- 2d, It must contain a single volume only (whether printed book, magazine, review, or pamphlet), the several sheets or parts thereof, where there are more than one, being sewed or bound together.
- 3d, It must not exceed two feet in length, breadth, width, or depth.
- 4th, It must have no writing or marks upon the cover, or its contents, except the name and address of the person to whom it may be sent.
- 5th, The postage must be prepaid in full, by affixing outside the packet or its cover the proper number of stamps.

If any of the above conditions be violated, the packet must be charged as a letter, and treated as such in all respects.

REGISTERED LETTERS, FOREIGN, COLONIAL, AND SHIP.

In the case of foreign, colonial, or ship registered letters, it must be clearly understood that registration cannot extend beyond the port of despatch in the United Kingdom ; and the office does not engage for the security of any registered foreign, colonial, or ship letter longer than while the contents of the mail shall be in the custody of the British Post-Office. Letters, however, addressed to France, and letters passing through France, are exceptions to this rule, the French Post-Office undertaking to provide for their security till they shall have been delivered, if addressed to France, and so long as they remain in the French territory, if passing through France. All registered letters to and from France, and countries passing through France, must be paid to their destination, or to the farthest limit, and are subject to the following regulations :—

- 1st, A registration fee of sixpence in addition to the British portion (or rate) of the postage upon such letters.
- 2d, The foreign portion of the rate must be calculated, and the amount doubled.

Registered letters for Belgium and countries through Belgium,
 — — Holland and countries through Holland,
 — — Hamburg and countries through Hamburg, are charged with the British registration fee only, in addition to the postage an ordinary letter would be liable to, and the postage must be prepaid.

Registered letters for Prussia, or to foreign countries through Prussia, must be prepaid the full postage (British and Foreign) as well as the British registration fee of sixpence, and a further charge of threepence on each registered letter, whatever may be its weight, on account of the Prussian registration fees. It is hoped that the public will take the precaution to register all letters of value.

RE-DIRECTED LETTERS.

Re-directed letters between France, Belgium, and Holland, and countries the correspondence of which passes through France, Belgium, and Holland, and the United Kingdom, are returned charged with the same amount of postage that should have been paid by the receivers. Letters originating in the United Kingdom, re-directed from France, Belgium, or Holland, are returned under the same conditions, and are liable to a further charge of British postage—viz., 5d. from Calais, and 8d. from Holland.

All other re-directed letters, which cannot be forwarded without prepayment of postage, must be sent to the Dead Letter Office to be returned for the amount due—viz., for their conveyance to the United Kingdom (if the postage to the United Kingdom is not paid), and for the further amount from the United Kingdom to the place of re-direction.

RE-DIRECTED NEWSPAPERS.

Newspapers originating in the United Kingdom, addressed to parties in France, Belgium, and Holland, who have returned, may be re-directed (on the original covers) to them, and are liable to the first charge only.

Newspapers from the colonies and foreign countries, for persons who may have removed, may be re-directed to them at any place within the United Kingdom free of postage, provided they have not been opened at the place to which they were originally addressed. But a newspaper which has been opened is charged at the same rate as if it were a letter from the place of re-direction to the place at which it may be ultimately delivered. Newspapers upon which any colonial or foreign postage may be due when re-directed, shall be delivered at any place within the United Kingdom for the same amount of postage that would have been chargeable had they been delivered at their original address. Newspapers from one foreign country or colony to another, in transit through, and addressed to the care of a person in, the United Kingdom, may be re-directed forward without extra charge, provided they have not been out of the custody of the Post-Office; but such newspapers cannot be reposted without incurring the charge of letter postage.

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS, SEAMEN, AND SOLDIERS IN HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE ABROAD.

Letters to seamen and soldiers may be forwarded by post at the rate of one penny each, under the following regulations:—

- 1st, The penny must be paid at the time the letter is put into the Post-Office.
- 2d, The direction must signify the class of seamen or soldier.
- 3d, The name of the ship, regiment, or corps, to which he belongs.
- 4th, The letter must not exceed half an ounce, and be upon their private concerns only.

Letters for seamen and soldiers, whether in her Majesty's or the East India Company's military or naval service (while on actual service), may be forwarded, under the foregoing regulations, to India, China, &c., via Southampton. They can now be sent to India via Marseilles, on payment of the British rate of 1d., besides the French rate of 5d. if under a quarter of an ounce, or 10d. exceeding that weight, or to any foreign country, on payment of the foreign rate of postage in addition to the British rate of 1d. as above.

Letters for seamen and soldiers forwarded by private ships (with the following exceptions):—St Helena, East Indies, New South Wales, Cape of Good Hope, and Mauritius, are charged 3d. each.

Letters of soldiers and seamen, addressed to the United States of America, will in future be chargeable with the American rate of five cents, or twopence halfpenny sterling each, in addition to the ordinary British rate of one penny; the postage of all such letters must be prepaid.

Warrant officers, either in the army or navy, or masters' mates, or engineers of the navy, are not entitled to transmit letters at less than the usual rates of postage.

Seamen's or soldiers' letters received from any part beyond sea, upon which the said penny has not been prepaid, shall be charged to the receiver with double the rate—viz. 2d. each.

RE-DIRECTED LETTERS FOR OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, AND SEAMEN.

Letters re-directed to commissioned officers in the army or navy, subject to foreign or colonial postage, may be forwarded to such officers when removed upon service (whether at home or abroad), and be delivered to them for the same amount of postage that would have been chargeable had they been delivered at their original address. In all other cases they are subject to the same regulation as ordinary re-directed letters. Soldiers' and seamen's letters are not liable to any additional rate upon re-direction.

NEWSPAPERS, PERIODICALS, &c., CHARGED FOR IRREGULARITIES.

Newspapers posted out of date, written on, or in any way marked for reference, or containing anything contrary to the Act, or without being prepaid, will, if there be no means of forwarding them as unpaid letters, be sent to the Dead Letter Office. When they can be forwarded, those out of date, or not prepaid as required, will be charged with the ordinary letter postage.

Newspapers posted in France, contrary to the established regulations of that country, are transmitted to this country as letters. British newspapers reposted in France for England are charged with the British frontier postage of 5d. per half ounce.

§ Bond as security for moneys to be thereafter lent, advanced, or paid, or which may become due upon account-current, together with any sum already advanced or due, or without, as the case may be—

Where the money secured, or to be ultimately recoverable thereupon, shall be limited not to exceed a given sum—the same duty as on a bond for such limited sum.

And where uncertain, and without any limit, the same duty as on a bond for a sum equal to the amount of the penalty of such bond.

And where there shall be no penalty in the bond, such bond shall be available for such an amount only as the ad valorem duty denoted by any stamps thereon will extend to cover.

§ Bond (personal) given as a security for the transfer or retransfer of any share in any of the Government or Parliamentary Stocks or Funds, or in the Stock and Funds of the Banks of England or Ireland, or of the East India Company, or of any other company or corporation—the same ad valorem duty as on a bond for a sum of money equal to the value of the stock or fund secured, according to the average price thereof on the day of the date of the bond, or on either of the ten days preceding; or if there shall not have been any known sale on any of such days, then on the latest day preceding on which there shall have been a known sale.

§ Bond (personal) given as a security for the payment of any sum of money, or for the transfer or retransfer of any share in any of said stocks or funds which shall be secured also by a mortgage or wadset, or other instrument charged with, and which shall have paid the same duty as a mortgage or wadset, or for the performance of covenants contained in such mortgage or other instrument, or for both those purposes, provided such mortgage, wadset, or other instrument shall bear even date with, and be referred to in such bond—

Where the sum of money or the value of the stock or funds secured shall not exceed L.800—the same ad valorem duty as on a mortgage or wadset for securing the like amount or value.

Exceeding L.800, L.1.

§ Bond (personal or heritable) given as an additional or further security for the payment of any sum or sums of money, or for the transfer or retransfer of any share in any of the stocks or funds before mentioned, previously secured by a bond, mortgage, or other security therein referred to, and which shall have paid the proper ad valorem duty on bonds or mortgages imposed by law at the date thereof—

And in every other case such transfer, assignment, disposition, or assignation shall be chargeable with the duty of L.1, 15s.

§ Bond (personal or heritable) given as the only or principal security for the payment of any annuity upon the original creation and sale thereof—the same ad valorem duty as on a conveyance upon sale in consideration of the sum or value given or agreed to be given for the purchase of such annuity.

§ Bond (personal or heritable) given as a security for the payment of any annuity (except as aforesaid), or of any sum or sums of money at stated periods (not being interest for any principal sum, nor rent reserved or payable upon any lease or tack), for the term of life or any other indefinite period, so that the whole money to be paid cannot be previously ascertained—

And where any yearly sum is reserved in addition to or together with such produce, relative to the yearly amount or value of which there is no such stipulation or limitation, the ad valorem duty shall be charged in respect of such yearly sum.

And where both a certain yearly sum and also such produce relative to the yearly amount or value of which there shall be such stipulation or limitation is reserved, the ad valorem duty shall be charged on the aggregate of such yearly sum, and also of the highest yearly amount or value of such produce.

And where any person, having contracted for, but not obtained, a lease of any property, shall contract to sell such, or part thereof, or his right therein or thereto, to any other, and a lease be granted to such other, the consideration which shall be paid or agreed to be given to the person selling to such lessee shall be set forth in such lease, which shall be charged as well with the said ad valorem duty on such consideration as with the duty on rent paid to the lessor.

Transfer, Disposition, or Assignment of any mortgage or wadset, &c.—

Where no further sum of money or stock shall be added to the principal already secured, if such principal shall not exceed in value in the whole the sum of £1400—the same duty as on a mortgage or wadset for the total amount or value of such principal.

NOTE.—When the Estate has been under-estimated, or effects omitted, so as to infer the payment of further duty, an additional inventory on a stamp corresponding to the aggregate amount of the original inventory, and the additional value, must be exhibited (48 Geo. III., c. 149, sec. 40), and the original inventory will be given up to the executor or his mandatory by the Solicitor of Inland Revenue, and repayment of the amount of the duty upon it will be obtained from the Collector at Edinburgh. A full copy of the original inventory and oath must be left with the Solicitor.

When the estate has been over-estimated, or effects improperly included, a corrected inventory must be exhibited, engrossed on a stamp corresponding to the true amount, and allowance of the original stamp will be got as a spoiled stamp within six months from the date of recording the corrected inventory. Forms of the affidavit may be got at the Solicitor's Office, where, after being sworn, it is lodged along with a full copy of the original inventory and relative oath.

RETURN OF INVENTORY-DUTY.

A return of the duty paid on the inventory may be obtained if the personal debts due by the deceased at the time of his death reduce the estate to a sum in respect of which a less stamp-duty is payable than has actually been paid. The claim is made by affidavit and schedule, according to regulations, to be had from the Solicitor of Inland Revenue, and requires to be lodged with him (the days for this purpose are Monday and Friday, between twelve and two o'clock) within three years from the date of the inventory, and to be accompanied by a copy of the recorded inventory and stamped appraisements, vouchers, &c., of the constitution of the debts (such as bonds, bills, accounts, &c.), and of the payment. The time for lodging the claim, if expired, may be extended on application, by letter addressed to the Secretary of the Board of Stamps and Taxes, London.

REGULATIONS AS TO EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

The Solicitor's Office, No. 5 in the Inland Revenue Office, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps on Tuesday and Thursday, every week, from twelve noon to two P.M. The distributors of stamps at the following places also receive spoiled stamps for allowance: Glasgow, Ayr, Kilmarnock, Dumfries, Perth, Dundee, Aberdeen, Banff, and Elgin.

A supply of forms of affidavits is kept by the Solicitor and the above distributors, and claimants may attend at the Solicitor's office, and have the affidavits filled up and taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a justice of the peace, and afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If the claim be admitted, a ticket is issued, stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after Thursday se'enight, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to parties resident in Edinburgh, or within ten miles thereof, must be presented for allowance within six months after being signed in the case of executed instruments, and six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If beyond that distance, six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bills and notes delivered to payees, or negotiated, or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged, unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same, excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance, see 54 Geo. III., c. 133.

Unexecuted instruments are allowed, if inadvertently spoiled. Executed, that is signed by any party, if void in law from the beginning; from error, or mistake, unfit for the purposes originally intended; from the death or refusal to sign of any person whose signature is necessary; from the want of the signature of some material and necessary party; from refusal to act under; or from non-acceptance, they shall be unfit for or fail of the purpose intended, or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped (see 53 Geo. III., cap. 108). Transfers of stock, if signed by the seller alone, and other instruments if by one party, new deeds require to be produced to the proper officer of stamps, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled, if it be of the value of L.6 or upwards. Application for this purpose to the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes should be lodged with the affidavit. The Commissioners, by 3 and 4 Will. IV., cap. 97, sec. 19, may, if in their discretion they think fit, refund, in money, the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorised to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after being purchased. In both cases is deducted the per centage allowed by law on the purchase of stamps.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The duty, or deficiency of duty, shall be due and payable to her Majesty, and also the penalty of L.10. The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole, or (as the case may be) the deficiency of the stamp-duty remaining payable on it, and, over and above such duty, a penalty of L.10; and if the whole amount of said duty or deficiency shall exceed L.10, then, in addition to said duty and penalty, there shall be paid, by way of additional penalty, interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of 5 per cent from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the said duty, or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed shall be brought to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, in order to be stamped, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment only of a portion thereof, provided it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty (13 and 14 Vict., c. 97, sec. 12).

Abroad.—If the deed shall be executed by any party abroad, it may be stamped without any penalty, if brought to be so within two calendar months from the time of being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts to the satisfaction of the Commissioners (13 and 14 Vict., c. 97, sec. 13).

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty to which a deed, whether previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on payment of a fee of 10s. The duty or insufficient duty which the Commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they shall stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in the case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, shall also impress the deed with a particular stamp to be provided for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence, notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. The opinion of the Commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on the stamp-duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited (13 and 14 Vict., c. 97, sec. 14 and 15).

DISCOUNT ON THE PURCHASE OF STAMPS.

Parties who may purchase stamps (except receipt-stamps, labels for medicines, newspapers, and postage stamps), at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, under the value of L.10 each, but to the value of L.30 or upwards in the whole, are allowed discount at the rate of 30s. per cent (12 and 13 Vict., c. 80); and any person who purchases at the Stamp Offices of London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, stamps for receipts to the amount of L.5 or upwards, or of any distributor or sub-distributor not within ten miles from said respective offices, to the amount of L.1 or upwards, shall receive an allowance at the rate of L.7, 10s. per cent—no allowance for a fraction of a pound (13 and 14 Vict., cap. 97, sec. 18).

PERTSHIRE.

This extensive county is divided, on the north, by the Grampian Mountains from the counties of Inverness and Aberdeen. The county of Forfar forms its eastern boundary, on the south it has the upper portion of the Frith of Tay, and the counties of Fife, Kinross, Clackmannan, and Stirling; from the latter it is divided by the river Forth; on the west it has the county of Argyre. This county possesses both a Highland and Lowland region, having some of the most fertile and best cultivated land in Scotland, and districts of the wildest and most rugged grandeur. The Carse of Gowrie, and much of the land round Perth, in Strathearne and Strathmore, is of the former description, while the districts of Atholl, Breadalbane, and the Stormont will realise the expectations of the most inveterate seeker after the picturesque. The area has been variously computed, and it is acknowledged that 1,625,000 acres is a low estimate of its extent, and nearly two-thirds of that is under cultivation or in pasture. The population (1851), 139,216, is considerably less than Forfarshire, which is not near the same extent; but this is to be accounted for that it has no large town except Perth, which has not one-third of the number of its rival on the Tay, Dundee. Its rate of increase during the last ten years has been 1 per cent, and during the preceding ten years it decreased 3 per cent. The valued rental in 1674 was 399,892 pounds Scots, and the value of all real property assessed in 1843 was above £600,000. The city of Perth returns one member, the registered electors above 1100. The only other place that has a Parliamentary representation, independent of the county, is Culross, which is joined to the Stirling burghs. The other towns, Crieff, Dunblane, Dunkeld, &c., are merged in the county, which returns one member, and has a registered constituency of 4287 voters. Principal mountains—Ben More, 3994 feet; Ben Lawers, 3945 feet; and also many others of inferior altitudes. Lochs—Tay, Earne, Rannoch, and Ericht, and the chief rivers are the Tay and the Earne, with their tributaries.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

NATIONAL ASSURANCE AND INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION, 7 St Martin's Place, Trafalgar Square, LONDON.

Established May 1844.

THIS SOCIETY combines the advantages of Life Assurance with those of a safe and profitable Investment of Capital. The plan is original and peculiar, and cannot be adopted by any other Institution without contravening the enactments for the Regulation of Joint Stock Companies.

Mutual Assurance :—

The entire Profits belong to the Assured, and are divided annually amongst the holders of Policies on which five or more yearly premiums have been paid.

Half-Credit Rates of Premium :—

Members have the option of paying half the amount only of the annual Premium for the first five years ; and the sums for which credit is given may be liquidated out of the profits from time to time allotted to the Assured.

No charge made to Members for Stamp-duty.

Assurances may also be effected on the non-participating principle, at low rates of premium.

Notices of Transfer acknowledged, and Transfer Deeds registered.

Persons Assured are at liberty, without extra charge, to cross the Atlantic in steam-vessels ; and to proceed to any part of Upper or Lower Canada, or any part of the United States not further South than the City of Washington, nor further West than the river Mississippi.

Special licences for particular places, and general licences to proceed to any part of the World, granted on the usual terms.

Investment Department :—

This Department affords an opportunity for all classes to invest the smallest sums, with the certainty of deriving the highest rate of interest yielded by undoubted Securities. To CAPITALISTS, who so often experience difficulties and delays in obtaining safe and profitable investments, it affords immediate and unusual facilities. To the MIDDLE, and even the INDUSTRIAL classes, it presents an opportunity of realising an annual interest beyond what any other institution, either public or private, affords.

Stock is represented by two classes of Vouchers. Investment may be made in either class ;— with Capital of any amount, or with a sum of Five Pounds, or Five Shillings, which may be increased at pleasure.

Prospectuses and full information may be obtained by application to the Managers at the Head Office, or to the respective Agents throughout the United Kingdom.

THE DIRECTORS OF THE STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY REQUEST ATTENTION TO THE HIGH POSITION IN WHICH THE COMPANY STANDS IN PUBLIC FAVOUR, THE SUCCESSFUL RESULTS OF THE BUSINESS, AND THE LIBERALITY OF ITS DEALING.

I. PROGRESS OF THE BUSINESS.

The Company have granted Assurances, during the last two years alone, to the amount of Nine Hundred and Thirty-eight Thousand Pounds, and upwards of One Thousand Six Hundred and Fifty Persons have joined the Company as Assurers in that period.

The Annual Income of the Company is upwards of £170,000.

II. DIVISION OF PROFITS.

The PROFITS OF THE COMPANY are ascertained every five years, and additions, by way of Bonus, have been made to the Policies at four periods—1835, 1840, 1845, 1850. The following are examples:—

Date of Policy.	Sum in Policy.	Bonus Additions.	Together.
	£	£ s.	£ s.
1825	1000	873 0	1873 0
1828	1000	729 0	1729 0
1831	1000	585 0	1585 0
1834	1000	441 0	1441 0
1837	1000	309 10	1309 10
1840	1000	203 0	1203 0
1843	1000	121 10	1121 10
1846	1000	52 10	1052 10

SURRENDER OF BONUS FOR VALUE IN CASH.

According to this method, if the person assured does not wish the sum in his policy increased, he may surrender the Bonus, and take its value in cash; that is, instead of the amount being paid with the sum assured at death, such a sum will now be given as the Directors may consider equivalent to it in present value.

Example.—In the case of the policy of £1000 opened before 15th November 1825, for instance, as quoted above, assuming the party to have assured at the age of 35, and to be now 60 last birthday, the sum of £463 : 7 : 9 would be given for a surrender of the Bonus of £873, while the policy will continue to receive its share of profits, at future investigations, as if the surrender had not taken place.

APPLICATION OF THE BONUS TO THE EXTINCTION OF ANNUAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

Example.—A person, aged 45, who assured in 1830 for £1000, has received Bonus Additions to the extent of £633. He pays a premium of £37 : 7 : 6, but wishes to apply the Bonus in extinction of the annual payment. His age being 65 last birthday, he can redeem his future premiums by surrendering £578 : 14 : 9 of his Bonus, leaving £54 : 5 : 3 to be paid along with the sum assured at death, and will receive further additions at each investigation he may survive.

A full Report on the late Investigation of the Company's Affairs and Division of Profits can be obtained by application at the Offices of the Company.

III. SELECT ASSURANCES.

The public are indebted to this Company for the introduction of new and important benefits in the practice of Life Assurance. A Standard Policy which has existed for five years is admissible to a class of "SELECT ASSURANCES;" and in that class all Policies are unchallengeable on any ground of objection whatever. The Directors have also made provision in connexion with that class, for relieving the Assured who have no prospect of going abroad, from the usual irksome restrictions as to residence beyond the limits of Europe. Persons lending money on the security of Policies, Marriage Trustees, and, in short, all who rely on the security afforded by Assurances, cannot fail to appreciate these new and important advantages.

By order of the Board,

WILL. THOS. THOMSON, Manager.

ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE CORPORATION.

Established, A. D. 1720, by Charter of King George the First.

Chief Office in the Royal Exchange, London.

LIFE ASSURANCES may be effected with this Corporation for any Sum not exceeding £10,000 on one life; either with or without participation in Profits.

The reversionary BONUS has averaged 2 per Cent per Annum on the Sum assured, or 46 per Cent on the Amount of Premium paid:

Or equivalent Reductions have been made in the Annual Premiums subsequently payable.

The position and character so long maintained by the Corporation afford a guarantee that this Bonus has been declared out of realised Surplus, and not by anticipating future profits, to the prejudice of persons who may be subsequently assured.

The expenses of management, being divided between the different branches, are spread over a larger amount of business than that transacted by any other office—a consideration which materially enhances the expectation of future Bonus.

The fees of Medical Referees are paid by the Corporation.

With the exception of another Company, established in the same year, and of a Mutual Society incorporated in 1706, this is

THE OLDEST EXISTING LIFE OFFICE.

FIRE AND MARINE ASSURANCES ARE GRANTED ON LIBERAL TERMS.

THE ONLY OFFICE IN WHICH THE BENEFIT OF MUTUAL ASSURANCE CAN BE OBTAINED AT A MODERATE PREMIUM.

The Assured are at the same time specially exempt from personal liability.

The PREMIUMS are, at early and middle ages, about a fourth lower than in other Mutual Societies; so that the Premium required in them, at age 30, for £1000, will here secure a Policy of £1230 from the first—and equally moderate with the Non-participating scale of the Proprietary Companies. Those who open Policies with the latter are thus gratuitously bestowing upon the shareholders what should go to increase their own Assurances.

The WHOLE PROFITS belong to the Assured, and are divisible upon a principle at once safe, equitable, and favourable to good lives. That principle is, that the Surplus should be reserved for those Members whose Premiums, with accumulated interest, amount to the sums in their Policies, instead of being frittered away among Policies of short duration, on which there is a loss, and not a profit, to the common fund.

The progress has been in all respects satisfactory. Since the commencement, in 1837, 5000 Policies have been issued, covering Assurances to the amount of about two millions and a quarter. This number considerably exceeds that of any other Scottish Office at the same period of its existence.

By the second scale, he may secure the same sum at death, for a yearly premium of £27, 5s., ceasing on his attaining the age of 50—being thus entirely relieved of payment before he has passed the prime of life, and that for nearly the same Premium as other Mutual Offices require for the whole of life.

THE LIFE ASSOCIATION OF SCOTLAND is to be distinguished from the other Assurance Offices in Scotland, principally by its system of dividing its Surplus, or (as it is more commonly termed) "Profit."

Every Member being, in the first instance, required to pay an Annual Contribution or Premium, according to his age at entry, is entitled, after making five payments, to participate with all the other Members annually thereafter on the footing of equality; and receives back, every year, just that proportion of his Premium which has been found more than requisite for meeting the claims, and which, being paid to him in money, he is enabled to dispose of as he may deem most advantageous, either in assuring a further sum or otherwise.

The Association commenced in 1845 to divide its Surplus, and the returns in money to the Members have been as follow:—In 1845, 1846, and 1847, 30 per cent of the Premiums, that is, 6s. per £1. In 1848, 1849, 1850, and 1851, 35 per cent of the Premiums, that is, 7s. per £1. The Policy-holders, therefore, paid only 14s. per £1, and 13s. per £1, in each of these years respectively.

The Premiums, although originally moderate, are thus reduced to less than two-thirds of their amount. The following are examples:—

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THE following Advantages are offered by this Company:—

I. SECURITY.

It is possessed of a very large Subscribed Capital, divided among a numerous body of Proprietors, and thus the absolute security so essential to a Life Assurance Society is afforded in its most substantial form.

II. PREMIUMS.

The Rates of Premium have been calculated expressly for it, and will bear a fair comparison with those of other Companies. No Entry-money is charged. Parties may assure either a specific sum, payable at death, on payment of a reduced rate of premium; or, on payment of an increased rate, they may participate in the Profit Scheme of the Company.

III. DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS.

TWO-THIRDS of the Profits arising on the Participating Class of Policies, without being subject to any Charges for Management, are divided EVERY FIVE YEARS among those entitled to participate, on the MOST EQUITABLE PRINCIPLE, viz., in the proportion each party has contributed to the Fund.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

This Company Insures almost all kinds of Property against Accidents arising from Fire, at rates commensurate with the risk.

The Directors can with confidence refer to the promptitude and liberality with which accidental losses are adjusted by this Institution.

Losses by Lightning to Farming Stock are paid.

Copies of Prospectus and all other information may be had on application at the Offices of the Company, or to any of the Company's Agents.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THIS Corporation transacts almost every kind of LIFE ASSURANCE, ANNUITY, ENDOWMENT, INVESTMENT, and REVERSIONARY BUSINESS. LIFE ASSURANCES may be effected with or without Participation in Profits, on approved lives, for capital sums from £20 upwards, payable at death, or at any specified age.

DIVISION OF PROFITS.

The Second Investigation into the affairs of the Company, for the Declaration of a Bonus, was made at 30th April 1851—when the additions made averaged from 25 to 68 per Cent on the Premiums paid by middle-aged lives.

The effects of these Bonus additions, which vest immediately, and may be commuted into Cash payments, or applied in reduction of the future Premium, will appear from the following Examples:—

- | | | |
|---|---|------------|
| 1. A Policy of £1000, opened 30th April 1837, is now increased to | - | £1202 6 11 |
| 2. A Policy of £1000, opened 30th April 1841, is now increased to | - | 1148 18 1 |
| 3. A Policy of £1000, opened 30th April 1846, is now increased to | - | 1082 2 2 |
| 4. A Policy of £1000, opened 30th April 1851, is now increased to | - | 1013 15 0 |

And these Policies will, besides, have allotted to them prospective additions at the rate of One Pound Seven Shillings and Sixpence per Cent per annum, should they become claims before the next Investigation in 1856.

The Premiums are of the most moderate description, and may be paid Yearly, Half-Yearly, or Quarterly, and during life or for a term of years only, or in other ways to suit the convenience of Assurers.

THE ACCUMULATED CAPITAL OF THE SOCIETY

AMOUNTS AT THIS DATE TO UPWARDS OF

TWO MILLIONS THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS.

THE ANNUAL REVENUE EXCEEDS

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS.

THIS SOCIETY, which was established in 1815, may be regarded, so far as Scotland is concerned, as the parent institution, having been the first, and for many years the only Life Assurance Establishment in that part of the kingdom.

Since that date, the subject of Life Assurance has become much more generally understood, and the public are better acquainted with, and more ready to avail themselves of, the important benefits resulting from its operation. It has accordingly followed as a natural consequence, that numerous rival Institutions have arisen during recent years, and others are daily springing up. The systems pursued are of the most varied character, and the leading principles of the different Offices, in many instances, of very dissimilar natures. Amidst the great competition thence arising for the favour of the public, and the conflicting claims put forward to its confidence, a stronger proof that the real value and true object of Life Assurance is now more fully appreciated and understood, could scarcely be desired than the fact, that the prosperity of the older Institutions of established reputation, so far from being diminished, has continued steadily to increase. The purpose of a party entering into an Assurance contract being essentially a matter of prudence or safety, and not of speculation, it is natural to suppose that the character of an Office for stability and careful management, should, in a great majority of cases, form a prominent consideration in the selection.

The past history of the SCOTTISH WIDOWS' FUND AND LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY, since its establishment in 1815, has been one of great and uninterrupted success; and the results submitted in the Annual Reports afford most gratifying evidence of the undiminished favour and confidence of the community.

The total amount of Assurances effected since the commencement of the Society, exceeds

NINE MILLIONS STERLING.

There has been paid to the Representatives of deceased members a total amount of somewhere about

ONE MILLION SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS.

The average amount of Assurances effected during the last thirteen years, exceeds

HALF A MILLION ANNUALLY.

All information may be obtained on application at the Head Office, or at any of the Society's Agencies.

THIS Company transacts the business of Life Assurance in all its departments.

SPECIAL ATTENTION

is invited to the peculiar Bonus system which was first introduced by this Company. It proceeds upon the easily-understood plan of ascertaining the profits as soon as possible after they arise, and of dividing them immediately, and with equity, among those interested—not benefiting one favoured class at the expense of others, but benefiting all alike in proportion to the amount of their respective assurances.

DISTINCTIVE FEATURES.

1. There is a Division of Profits once every year.
2. The Assured participate in the Profits at the first Annual Division thereof after their Assurance is effected.
3. The Assured are allowed the alternative of having their share of the profits added to the sums in their Policies, or of having the value thereof annually returned to them in cash.
4. No advantage is taken of the non-payment of Premium either from oversight or other cause, in order to deprive a Policy-holder of the full surrender value of his Assurance.

The Company's Policies are declared to be indisputable on any account whatever on the expiry of five years from the date of the Assurance. The Assured are allowed, on licence being applied for and issued, to proceed, after the expiry of five years from the date of the Policy, to any part of the world, without payment of extra Premium.

NO ENTRY-MONEY CHARGED.

Copies of the different publications issued by the Company (including, among others, a popular explanation of the " Bonus System," as practised by different Offices), Forms of Proposal, and other information, may be obtained at the Company's Offices, or from any of the Local Agents.

LIFE ASSURANCE.

THIS CORPORATION RANKS AMONGST THE FIRST AND MOST FLOURISHING COMPANIES IN SCOTLAND; supported by a large and influential body of Proprietors; giving to the Assured every advantage hitherto offered to the Public.

The PREMIUMS are moderately rated at all ages, and are so modified, by ascending and descending scales, and otherwise, as to suit the object of every Insurer at the least immediate outlay, whether to secure a debt, provide for his family, or to convert income into capital for his own use.

When an Insurance is for the WHOLE PERIOD OF LIFE, ONE-HALF OF THE PREMIUMS ONLY REQUIRE TO BE PAID FOR THE FIRST FIVE YEARS AFTER THE DATE OF THE POLICY; the other half may remain unpaid, subject to the payment of interest at five per cent annually, to be deducted at death, or may be previously paid off at convenience.

PARTICIPATING POLICIES share in the Profits without payment of Entrance-Money, or incurring the risk attending Mutual Assurance.

BONUSES may be either added to the Sum insured, or applied in reduction of future Premiums. The last Bonus (declared December 1844) averaged Forty per cent on the Premiums paid during the Septennial period.

BONUS YEAR.

ON THE 31st DECEMBER 1851, THE BOOKS CLOSE FOR THE FOURTH SEPTENNIAL BALANCE AND DIVISION OF PROFITS. POLICIES EFFECTED ON THE PARTICIPATING SCALE BEFORE THAT DATE WILL SHARE IN THE BONUS TO BE THEN DECLARED.

The Profits are divided on the Insurance principle, whereby every Insurer obtains his full and fair share, at whatever age he insures, and to whatever age he may attain.

The Premiums are moderately rated at all ages, and may be so modified as to suit the objects and convenience of parties.

Bonuses may be either added to the Sum insured, or applied in reduction of future Premiums, or commuted for a payment in Cash.

Tables of Rates, and every other information, may be had at the Head Office, or from the Company's Agents in the country.

FIRE INSURANCE.

ABERDEEN ASSURANCE COMPANY.

ESTABLISHED 1825.—CAPITAL, £1,000,000.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

THE Public are invited to examine the advantages secured by connexion with the Participation Scheme of this Company, which was begun in 1840. The eminent success which has attended it is apparent from the results of the First Investigation, which took place in 1847, the Vested Bonuses then declared varying from 15 to 65 per cent on the Premiums received, and Prospective Bonuses on the same scale being provided, without encroaching on future profits, for Claims emerging before next Investigation, in 1852.

For Assurances without profits the rates are strictly moderate.

Prospectuses, with every information, may be obtained at the Head Office, or any of the Agencies.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Insurances on almost every description of Property are undertaken at rates commensurate with the risk; and Claims promptly and liberally settled.

Edinburgh, September 1851.

THE PRINCIPLE OF LIFE ASSURANCE, in which the PROPRIETARY and MUTUAL Systems are duly combined, is the form in which the Assured are enabled to participate in a LARGER PROPORTION of the Profits than can ever be safely divided by any simple Mutual Assurance Society, in which, at each periodical Investigation, at least one-third of these Profits must always be laid aside as a RESERVED FUND, to form a substitute for the security afforded by a Subscribed Capital.

THE EDINBURGH LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY, under a combination of these two systems, gives NINE-TENTHS of the whole Profits to the Assured, whilst the Dividends to its Proprietors are paid solely from the Annual Income of their own paid-up and invested Capital.

The Bonus Declarations of the Company in 1835, 1842, and 1849 exhibit the great benefits of Insuring on the Participation Plan; and the steady and uniform progress of the Company for upwards of twenty-seven years is the best guarantee for their continuance.

In two instances, the total Bonuses ALREADY DECLARED have exceeded the sums originally insured.

The Non-participation Scale of Premiums will bear a favourable comparison with any well-established Office in the kingdom.

The Bonus of this Company may be applied either as an addition to the Policy or in diminution of the Annual Premium, or the surrender value may be received.

Extract from the "Post Magazine."

The Annual Report of the Royal Insurance Company, at Liverpool, and a commentary upon it in the Post Magazine, have become as regularly conjoined as the Queen's speech on the opening of Parliament and the debate by which it is invariably followed. The managers of other offices cannot charge us with partiality in these annual notices, as the success of the Royal Insurance Company has been of so remarkable a nature as almost to give it a separate position from Assurance Societies of a recent date.

In analysing the Report read at the recent meeting, and comparing its details with those of former years, we find that the amount received for Fire Premiums in the year 1849 is £34,469:10:4; being about £2200 more than the receipts in 1846, rather more than the amount received in 1847, and more than £3000 above the receipts of 1848. The entire receipts, under this head, from the opening of the Office in June 1845 to 31st December 1848, stand as follows :—

June, 1845, to Dec. 31, 1846.....	£54,128 19 0
Jan. 1, 1847, to Dec. 31, 1847.....	34,187 5 5
Jan. 1, 1848, to Dec. 31, 1848.....	31,346 1 9
	<hr/>
	£119,662 6 2

forming a grand total of nearly £120,000.

The Fire Premiums for the year 1850 amounted to	£44,027 10 0
The Share Capital amounts to	£182,535 0 0
Amount taken from accumulated profits in 1849, and added to permanent capital	89,280 0 0
Further accumulated profits to the 31st of December last (as per last Report)...	37,150 14 8

Total Paid-up and Invested Capital.....£308,965 14 8

PARTIES about to Insure would do well to consider the Benefits which this Old-Established Corporation gives to the Assured, both under the Mutual Plan (but without risk) and under the Non-Participating Plan. Under the former, about 84 per cent of the whole Profits are divided among the Insured. The Non-Participation Rates of the Company, compared with the Rates of the Mutual ones, give, at the age of 30, an annual return of £5, 14s. on an Insurance of £1200; or, in other words, an Insurance of £1475 may be effected with this Company for the same Premium that an Insurance of £1200 would cost with the Mutual Company at that age, exclusive of 10s. per cent of entry-money, which this Company does not charge.

Parties Insured with other Companies which do not declare their Bonuses for one or two years to come, may have these secured to them by an Insurance with this Company at a moderate rate.

NEW WORKS.

An INTRODUCTION to the STUDY of the NEW TESTAMENT.

By SAMUEL DAVIDSON, D.D.

In this Work all the questions connected with each part of the New Testament are fully discussed in the light of the most recent investigations, all difficult theological points elucidated, and every modern infidel objection worth notice turned aside. It is intended to be a guide to the calm inquirer amid the variety of topics that have been agitated, particularly of late, conducting him through every question of importance relating to the evidence, integrity, and interpretation of the New Testament books. Three Volumes 8vo.

BAGSTER'S NEW BLANK-PAGE BIBLE, for Manuscript Criticisms, Reflections, Notes, Registration of Sermons, &c. The BLANK-PAGE BIBLE obviates the inconveniences of interleaved and wide-margined Bibles, and possesses these additional advantages:—

- I. The blank paper is placed opposite the Text, that each verse may have its own annotation in the corresponding position.
- II. The blank paper is all neatly ruled, and divided into columns.
- III. The blank pages have printed headings of chapter and verse, to correspond with their contents.
- IV. The right-hand pages only being appropriated to the annotations, the inscription of notes is confined to that side of the book which during use lies firm upon the table.
- V. The paper of the book throughout is one of uniform fineness and quality, which adds materially to the flexibility and durability of the binding.
- VI. The printed text corresponds, line for line, with Bagster's Pocket Polyglot Bibles, and this secures a peculiar advantage to those who are accustomed to use either of the smaller or the Facsimile Large-print editions of that work.
- VII. An Index, for recording the Scripture-place of the memoranda.
- VIII. Its portability allows of its being used in the Pulpit with convenience. The thickness of the complete volume is about two inches.

The Publishers earnestly recommend this Bible to the attention of Clergymen and private Christians as a practically-useful and elegant volume, suited in all respects to the object for which it has been with great care prepared.

The BLANK-PAGE BIBLE is kept in various plain durable bindings, as well as in "Bagster's flexible Turkey morocco." Price, in plain morocco, 35s.

Η ΠΑΛΙΑ ΔΙΑΘΗΚΗ κατά τους ΕΒΔΟΜΗΚΟΝΤΑ. The Greek Septuagint Version, with the Apocrypha, including the Fourth Book of Maccabees, and the real Septuagint version of Daniel: with a Historical Introduction. One Volume octavo, 18s.

Η ΚΑΙΝΗ ΔΙΑΘΗΚΗ. A large-print Greek New Testament, with selected Various Readings and Parallel References, &c. &c. One Volume octavo, 12s., uniform in size with the Septuagint.

A NEW GREEK HARMONY of the GOSPELS. In One Vol. 4to.

The ANALYTICAL GREEK LEXICON to the NEW TESTAMENT; an alphabetical arrangement of every word found in the Greek Text, in every form in which each appears; that is to say, every occurrent person, number, tense, or mood of verbs, every case and number of nouns, pronouns, &c., is placed in its alphabetical order, fully explained by a careful grammatical analysis, and referred to its root; so that no uncertainty as to the grammatical structure of any word can perplex the beginner; but, assured of the precise grammatical force of any word he may desire to interpret, he is able immediately to apply his knowledge of the English meaning of the root with accuracy and satisfaction.

There are numberless persons possessed of but little leisure for study who are desirous of acquiring a competent knowledge of the New Testament in the original language. By means of this Lexicon they may now attain to this with comparative ease.

It is not supposed that a requirement so valuable and coveted as the ability to consult the original writings of the New Testament is to be secured without labour; but it is confidently asserted that this work gives to labour bestowed a precision of character, and a certainty of success, most cheering to the student; and enables him to proceed confidently step by step, as he may have opportunity, assured of help and guidance where he needs it, and possessing a check upon his results of a most important kind. One Volume, quarto.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S WORKS AND LIFE,

In various complete uniform sets.

1. THE ABBOTSFORD ILLUSTRATED EDITION, in 17 Vols., super-royal 8vo, with upwards of 2000

Illustrations on Wood and Steel, £14 2 6

 This Edition of the WAVERLEY NOVELS is one of the most richly illustrated Works ever published in this country. Of Steel Engravings alone there are 120, after Drawings by STANFIELD, ROBERTS, SIR DAVID WILKIE, LEITCH, CRESWICK, M'CULLOCH, and other distinguished Artists. Of Engravings on Wood there are nearly 2000, all of them engraved with scrupulous regard to accuracy of drawing and beauty of finish; and many of them, by their characteristic expression and spirit of execution, imparting an additional interest to the text which they illustrate.

The cost of this Edition exceeded £40,000. Nine-tenths of the impression have been already sold; it is not stereotyped, and there is no intention on the part of the Proprietors to reprint it. They accordingly recommend all those who desire to possess an Edition of "The Scott Novels," in which the creations of the Author are most worthily represented by the creations of the Artist, to add this Edition to their libraries.

BOARDING ESTABLISHMENT

FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG GENTLEMEN,

Montgreenan House, Ayrshire,

CONDUCTED BY

MR THOMAS RICHMOND WILSON,

For Ten Years resident Head Mathematical Master in the Grange School, Sunderland, and afterwards for Three Years Mathematical Master in the Glasgow Academy, MONTGREENAN is situated in one of the most picturesque and healthful localities in the West of Scotland, about three miles from Kilwinning and four miles from Irvine, two of the Stations on the Glasgow and South-Western Railway. The Mansion-house is surrounded by a lawn and park of nearly twenty acres, and stands in an elevated situation, commanding a very magnificent view of the Frith of Clyde. The avenues and private walks through the plantations which adorn the policies, and along the banks of the Lugton, within the grounds, are several miles in extent.

The ordinary course of Education comprehends English, Latin, Greek, French, German, History, Geography, Writing, Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Mathematics, and the Elements of General Science. Young Gentlemen who are preparing for the Universities, or for the Learned Professions, are grounded more particularly in Latin, Greek, and Antiquities. Those who are preparing for the Naval and Military Colleges, or for Engineering and Architectural pursuits, are conducted through the requisite course of Mathematics.

All the Pupils are carefully instructed in the Bible and Shorter Catechism. They are encouraged to read, in their leisure hours, books from the School Library, consisting of Miscellaneous Literature, selected expressly for the young. They are regularly and systematically trained in the manly and invigorating exercises of the Gymnasium, which stands in the open air, and is furnished with Ropes, Poles, Parallel Bars, &c. In Summer they enjoy the benefit of Sea-bathing under the personal superintendence of the Head Master. No one, however, is allowed to bathe without the sanction of his Parents or Guardians, and no one is ever compelled to bathe.

The Domestic Arrangements are as nearly as possible those of a private family. Three of the Assistant Masters reside in the House, and, along with the Head Master, devote the whole of their time and energies to the Instruction and Superintendence of the Pupils. All the Pupils are Boarders.

Address—“Montgreenan, by Kilwinning.”

BLAIRLODGE ACADEMY, POLMONT, STIRLINGSHIRE.

THIS ACADEMY, conducted by Mr ROBERT HISLOP, late Rector of the Glasgow Free Normal Seminary, on the joint responsibility of himself and Partner, the Rev. ROBERT CUNNINGHAM, will be re-opened on WEDNESDAY the 1st of October next.

Mr HISLOP is aided in his duties by Four Resident Masters, a Teacher of French and German, who attends three hours daily, and by Teachers of Music and Preparatory Gymnastic Exercises, who attend weekly, the latter throughout the year, and the former during a considerable portion of it.

This School, which is open to BOARDERS only, will be conducted on the same principles as heretofore. The care taken to procure and retain qualified Masters, the healthiness of the locality, its accessibility, the arrangements made for the accommodation of the Pupils, in buildings either erected with a special view to the object, or adapted to it at a very considerable expense, the ample play-ground, and other conveniences for carrying out a course of liberal education, and the result of the system as shewn in the half-yearly examinations of the Pupils, and in the subsequent progress of such as have been educated in the school, have, during the last ten years, secured for it a large share of public support. The full complement of Pupils has almost constantly been kept up, and in some years the applications for admission have considerably exceeded the vacancies. Perfectly aware that the favour of the public can be retained only by exertions similar to those by which it has been acquired, the Conductors of the School pledge themselves to spare no pains in maintaining and extending its character.

Blairlodge is situated three miles east from Falkirk, five west from Linlithgow, and half a mile from the Polmont station on the Edinburgh and Glasgow Railway, by which, and the Stirling Junction connecting the Edinburgh and Glasgow lines with the Scottish Central, it is readily accessible from all parts of Scotland.

For Prospectuses explaining the principles on which the School is conducted, and containing terms, &c., apply to Mr Robert Hislop, Blairlodge; the Rev. Robert Cunningham, 6 Brunton Place, Edinburgh; Mr David Bryce, bookseller, Glasgow; Mr William Innes, 31 Hanover Street, Edinburgh; and Messrs Nisbet & Co., Berners Street, London.

EDINBURGH AND GLASGOW RAILWAY COAL.

THE WESTERN COLLIERY COMPANY beg particularly to recommend a trial of the Ballochney Jewel Coal, it being now generally admitted that this Coal is not to be equalled by any Scotch Coal at present sold in Edinburgh. It is a large, rich, soft Coal, gives a strong heat, and very clean, producing nothing but a little heavy brown ash. In short, this Coal only requires to be tried to prove its very superior quality.

TESTIMONIALS.

From Sir THOMAS MACDOUGALL BRISBANE, Bart.

"I have now used the Moderator Lamp for some time, and am highly satisfied with it, as it gives a clear, steady light, and is easily managed.

"Its merits, I should imagine, will bring it into very general use."

From the Hon. SHERIFF ALISON.

"My experience of Hadrot's Lamp, supplied by Messrs Cronin & Co., enables me to confirm the most flattering testimonials which have been reported in its favour, and, consequently, to recommend it with the very highest confidence."

From DONALD SMITH, Esq., Manager, Western Bank of Scotland.

"I have used your Patent Moderator Lamp, and I am very much pleased with it. It lights a room 24 feet square admirably."

From S. THOMSON, Esq., M.D., Newarthill.

"I consider your Patent Moderator Lamp is preferable in many respects to either candles, gas, or any other light that I have used."

From Rev. HUGH MACKAY, Free Church Manse, Kilman.

"I have used your Patent Moderator Lamp during the whole of winter and spring with very great satisfaction. I have not seen any other kind of lamp that gives so much light with so little trouble and expense; and the light is withal so pleasant, that, should I have gas at my door, I would use the Moderator Lamp in preference in my sitting room."

From ALEXANDER SHEDDEN, Esq. of Morrishill.

"The two Lamps with which I lighted up my billiard table have answered the purpose most splendidly; and the one which I got for my dining-room (the latter 28 feet by 16) illuminates the whole thoroughly; and I am desirous to see your next supply, that I may select one or more for my lobby," &c.

From Rev. R. LEISHMAN, Clunie Manse.

"The Moderator Lamp has given me the greatest satisfaction; it gives a beautiful light, and is free of all smoke; indeed, I have no hesitation in saying that no lamp hitherto used can be compared to it."

From WILLIAM GRAHAM, Esq. of Lancefield, Glasgow.

"It is, beyond comparison, the best lamp I have ever seen."

From Major CAMPBELL, Ormodale.

"I do not hesitate to say that it is the best description of lamp I have ever met with."

THIS SERIES will be comprised in Six Volumes, post 8vo, uniform in size with the Lives of the Queens of England, embellished with Portraits and Engraved Title-pages, price 10s. 6d. each.

Vols. I. and II. are published, containing:—

I.—MARGARET TUDOR, QUEEN OF JAMES IV. MAGDALENE OF FRANCE, FIRST QUEEN OF JAMES V. MARY OF LORRAINE, SECOND QUEEN OF JAMES V.

II.—CONCLUSION OF LIFE OF MARY OF LORRAINE; AND LIFE OF MARGARET DOUGLAS, COUNTESS OF LENNOX.

VOL. III. WILL CONTAIN THE FIRST PART OF THE LIFE OF MARY, QUEEN OF SCOTS.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Miss Strickland has, we think, learned from Sir Walter Scott the charm by which he elevated romance to the dignity of history; but she has reversed the process—she has given to history the interest of romance. . . . In the volume before us, Miss Strickland has not only been fortunate in the selection of her subject, but she has sustained to the full the high reputation for research which her previous writings have acquired. Her choice has indeed been evidently directed to that period when Scottish history assumes the highest interest, and connects itself most closely with the sympathies of the present day. . . . Every one must be curious to peruse Miss Strickland's life of Mary Stuart."—English Review.

"Miss Strickland's talents as a writer, and turn of mind as an individual, in a peculiar manner fit her for painting a historical gallery of the most illustrious or dignified female characters in that land of chivalry and of song. . . . In her delineation of individual character, Miss Strickland evidently takes the greatest pains to be impartial; and the multitude of new documents and facts which she has brought on both sides of the question, in regard to her heroines, is a sufficient proof that this most laudable principle is a ruling one in her mind."—Blackwood's Magazine.

"The subject itself is so 'redolent' of interesting matter, that it must at once succeed to all the attractions of its precursor. . . . The whole possesses the interest of history, romance, and human life combined; and the curiosity of readers will find plenty of gratification in the easy and pleasant narrative."—Literary Gazette.

"In every chapter of the present volume she has prepared the way most brilliantly and effectively for what will be the principal feature in this series of regal biographies—the memorial of Mary, the rival of Elizabeth. As a fascinating effusion of eloquence and erudition, we welcome the volume before us cordially—but more cordially still as the commencement of a work calculated largely to enrich our historic literature."—The Sun.

"The first remark that occurs to us is the assiduity and research of the authoress, as evinced in her copious quotations, numerous notes and references, and also to her peculiar advantage in having had access to the family papers and repositories of many of the historical families of Scotland—an advantage of which she has made efficient use."—Glasgow Citizen.

Library Edition.

ALISON'S HISTORY OF EUROPE.

I.

A LIBRARY EDITION, handsomely printed on superfine paper, in Demy Octavo, to range with the Standard Editions of the English Historians, in 14 vols. ; including a COpIOUS INDEX, and embellished with PORTRAITS. Price £10, 10s.

A limited number are printed on thick paper, in Royal Octavo, with Proof Impressions of the Portraits, price £21.

"It would have been more than human if such an extensive work had been immaculate—if no slip of the memory or pen had occurred during its composition ; but every successive edition has been weeding them out ; and this present edition may challenge the closest scrutiny to detect even a trivial error. It is after the closest scrutiny and pains-taking comparison with earlier editions that we thus speak in its favour. New authorities, such as the 'Memoirs of Chateaubriand,' 'Lamartine's Girondins,' the concluding volumes of 'Thiers' History,' have been consulted ; fresh maps have been added to the magnificent Atlas which illustrates the work, and a gallery of beautiful and authentic portraits adorns its pages ; many of the battle scenes have been retouched, and additional light thrown on that most puzzling of great engagements—the battle of Waterloo. The Index continues in its former state of perfection ; and a noble chapter of Concluding Reflections has been added, which closes the history with profound and original observations on the grand features of national politics, and the general progress of mankind."—Dublin University Magazine.

"With respect to the particular edition, the issue of which has suggested these passing remarks, it is sufficient to say that, in point of typography and illustration, no work of this age, fertile as it is in the artistic luxuries of publication, can claim superiority over it, and but few aspire to an equal place."—Times.

Comprising 109 Maps and Plans of Countries, Sieges, and Battles, illustrative of ALISON'S HISTORY OF EUROPE, and of other Contemporary Histories ; constructed and engraved, under the superintendance of Mr Alison, by ALEXANDER KEITH JOHNSTON, F.R.S.E. F.R.G.S. F.G.S.

GEOGRAPHER AT EDINBURGH TO HER MAJESTY.

AUTHOR OF THE "PHYSICAL ATLAS" AND THE "NATIONAL ATLAS."

In ROYAL QUARTO, to accompany the ROYAL OCTAVO LIBRARY EDITION,	4 4 0

A knowledge of the Topographical peculiarities of a country which is the seat of war, is found to be of the utmost importance to a proper understanding of Military History. For this purpose, special Maps are indispensable, as such information will be sought for in vain in those of general Geography.

This ATLAS, intended to illustrate the most important period of modern history, consists of a series of PLANS of SIEGES and BATTLES, pointing out every circumstance of locality affecting the operations detailed, and MAPS of extensive portions of country, exhibiting at one view the whole range of a campaign, with the relative positions and political boundaries of Empires and States. In its construction, the valuable materials employed in the composition of the History have been made use of, and, through the kindness of the late lamented Lieutenant-General Sir John Macdonald, access was freely obtained to the Surveys and Plans deposited in the Quarter-Master-General's department of the Horse Guards. For the manner of its execution, the Author has much pleasure in referring to the following extract of a letter from Mr ALISON:—"It is a source of great satisfaction to me that the Atlas to illustrate my History has been completed in so masterly a style. I have no hesitation in saying that your Maps and Military Plans are not only greatly superior to anything of the kind that have been published in Great Britain, but more perfect than any on a similar scale that have yet appeared on the Continent. I have repeatedly heard this opinion expressed by the very highest military authorities, on whose judgment I can place more reliance than on my own in such matters. I cannot conclude without congratulating you on the successful termination of your arduous labours, and myself on the acquisition to my historical narrative of so very valuable a work, without the study of which the military operations cannot be properly understood."

ALISON'S EUROPE.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Edinburgh Review.

"A valuable addition to European literature: it is evidently compiled with the utmost care, and its narration, so far as we can judge, is not perverted by the slightest partiality."

North American Review.

"After a full examination, we do not hesitate to say, that this is the most complete and honest history of the French Revolution which has yet appeared, either in England or France. Certainly, no work by a British pen deserves to be compared with it; and we think every reader will accord it the preference, in point of fulness and impartiality, over the early narratives of the French Royalists, Bertrand de Molleville, Lacroix, and others, and the more recent and popular works of Mignet and Thiers."

Blackwood's Magazine.

"We congratulate the country on the possession of one of the noblest offerings which our age has laid upon the altar of historic literature."

Dublin University Magazine.

"The interests at issue in the narrative of Alison come home to every heart; they are peculiarly those of present times—our fathers or ourselves took part in the contest he describes. Democracy, Scepticism, Machinery—these are the prominent characteristics of the present age; and he shows us the era in which they all began. His work forms a magnificent portal to the Present; it contains a key to the strange characters which the passions of men are now writing upon the earth—those hieroglyphics of which the writers themselves know not the meaning."

Times.

"An extraordinary work, which has earned for itself a lasting place in the literature of the country, and within a few years found innumerable readers in every part of the globe. There is no book extant that treats so well of the period to the illustration of which Mr Alison's labours have been devoted. It exhibits great knowledge, patient research, indefatigable industry, and vast power. Few men living could have done greater justice to the subject, how much soever writers hereafter, profiting by Mr Alison's toil, may improve upon his plan. The History of Europe from the commencement of the French Revolution to the Battle of Waterloo is a valuable and indispensable addition to the histories of the world with which mankind has been favoured; and the avidity with which every rapidly succeeding edition is bought up, testifies not only to its intrinsic worth, but, as we have already said, to the intellectual character of the great mass of the British people."

Standard.

"In common with all, we are deeply indebted to its learned, acute, and eloquent author for this monument of British wisdom, British honour, and British prowess; but, as journalists, we are especially bound to acknowledge that often Mr Alison has furnished us with facts and arguments, and the exposition of great principles, by which we have been enabled to combat the falsehoods and sophistries of the ignorant or malicious enemies of that system by which Great Britain obtained strength to restore peace and liberty to the world, and to become, in the most glorious sense, the queen and benefactress of nations. History has been described as 'philosophy teaching by example,' and never did any historical work fulfil the conditions of this description better than the work before us. . . . This task Mr Alison has accomplished in a work—simple, graceful, and forcible in its style, eminently clear in its arrangement, but, above all, characterised by a most chaste impartiality, and by the unquestionable good faith which is ever sure to win the confidence and secure the attention of an honest and intelligent reader."

From the Preface of the German Translation of D. Ludwig Meyer.

"Alison's History of Europe and the States connected with it, is one of the most important works which literature has produced. Years have elapsed since any historical work has created such an epoch as that of Alison; his sources of information and authorities are of the richest and most comprehensive description. Though his opinions are on the Conservative side, he allows every party to speak for itself, and unfolds with a master's hand how few institutions make nations great, and mighty, and prosperous. In common with the whole civilised world, he does homage to the blessed Scriptures and an enlightened religion. Such a work and such a man belong to no party or country; they are the patrimony of all the friends of mankind in every part of the world, for they contend only for the clearest interests of the human race."

Essays; Political, Historical, and Miscel-

LANEOUS. By Archibald Alison, LL.D., Author of the "History of Europe," &c. In Three Volumes, Demy Octavo, uniform with the LIBRARY EDITION of Alison's "Europe."

"Besides their prescient sagacity, what is well worthy of remark in Mr Alison's Political Essays, is their eminently practical nature. Not a plan which he proposes, not a remedy which he suggests, but leaves the stamp of efficacy and simplicity. Well versed in the affairs of men, and in the functions of civil administration, no crude theory or speculative plan escapes him; and he makes his views as intelligible to others as they are manifest to himself. . . . His Essays are a splendid supplement to his History, and the two combined exhibit his intellect in all its breadth and beauty."—Dublin University Magazine.

"They cannot fail to enhance his already brilliant reputation, and to stamp him as one of the most learned, able, and accomplished writers of the age. . . . His depth and originality of thought, his extensive scholarship, his almost universal grasp of mind, his profound sagacity, and his complete mastery of the English language, are all as faithfully evinced in these Essays as they are in the more bulky and elaborate works which have proceeded from his pen, and rendered his name illustrious."—Glasgow Constitutional.

"To his Political Essays, however, it is impossible to deny the general praise of a rare and prescient sagacity: . . . In these volumes the reader is instructed in the tendencies of the present generation, by the most accurate, sound, and approved historian of that immediately preceding."—The Watchman.

The Military Life of John Duke of MARLBOROUGH. By Archibald Alison, LL.D. In 8vo, with Maps and Plans of Battles. A New Edition in the Press.

"Mr Alison has here a congenial subject, and he has written as one delighting in his task. The general reader need not look elsewhere for a popular history of Marlborough's campaigns. . . . The reader who desires a continuous narrative of the great military exploits of Marlborough and Eugene—one with all the interest of a romance, and all the authenticity of a series of State papers—one which may be read without pause, and consulted again and again with renewed advantage—would do well to place this volume on his shelves."—Atlas.

The Principles of Population, and their CONNECTION WITH HUMAN HAPPINESS. By Archibald Alison, LL.D. Two Vols. 8vo, price 30s.

"In Mr Alison's most able and well-timed work on population, the whole subject is handled with distinguished ability."—Morning Herald.

"This work contains the settled views of one whose indefatigable research, patient investigation, comprehensive views, original powers of thought, and elegance of expression, mark him as one of the most eminent men of our day."—Britannia.

"Those who peruse his volumes will have their minds expanded by various and enlarged speculation, and instructed by the new light in which existing information is placed."—Spectator.

Epitome of Alison's History of Europe.

For the use of Schools and Young Persons. Fourth Edition, Post Octavo, price 7s. 6d.

"This is a masterly epitome of the noblest contribution which has been made to the historic literature of the present day. The epitomist has been worthy of the history; and the result is, the production of a book which is undoubtedly the very best and safest book on the subject—for the use of schools or young persons—which has been published."—Hull Packet.

"The 'Epitome of Alison's History of Europe' is a capital piece of work, which, though primarily designed for schools and young persons, will be found very useful to all as a coup-d'œil of the History of Europe during one of its most important periods."—Spectator.

"The condensation has been effected with skill and judgment, and no important historical fact has been omitted; so that the reader who has neither means nor leisure to make himself acquainted with the larger edition, will obtain in this Epitome a very clear and complete view of those important events of the era comprised in the history. We recommend this book, especially to parents and teachers, as a most admirable school-book."—Dublin Evening Mail.

Memorials of the Castle of Edinburgh.

By James Grant, Author of "Memoirs of Kirkaldy of Grange," &c. &c. With Twelve Illustrations, Engraved on Wood by Branston. In crown 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

"Of the different books of this nature that have fallen in our way, we do not remember one that has equalled Mr Grant's 'Memorials of the Castle of Edinburgh.'"—Spectator.

"Mr Grant's very interesting history of the Castle of Edinburgh—a work equally distinguished by research, accuracy, and pictorial interest."—Atison's Essays.

"We have rarely met with a more agreeable or more interesting work than this. No one can ever have visited the 'Modern Athens' without being struck with the position of its castle, and the peculiarity of its site. . . . Many books are thrown aside after an examination of the first few pages, but this will never be the fate of the Memorials of Edinburgh Castle."—Bell's Messenger.

"We have been much amused with this little book, which abounds in pleasant and interesting episodes, and we recommend it as an excellent specimen of local history."—Athenæum.

Memoirs of Sir William Kirkaldy of GRANGE, Knight, Commander of French Horse, Lord of the Secret Council, and Governor of the Castle of Edinburgh for Mary Queen of Scots. Post 8vo, price 10s. 6d.

"It is seldom indeed that we find history so written,—in a style at once vigorous, perspicuous, and picturesque. The author's heart is thoroughly with his subject; and he exhibits, ever and anon, flashes of the old Scottish spirit, which we are glad to believe has not decayed from the land."—Blackwood's Magazine.

"This book professes to give an account of one of the most accomplished knights and bravest soldiers of his age. It is written in a manner worthy of the subject, and we shall be much surprised if its success be not proportioned to its merits. We do not know where we have studied a biography so pleasantly and graphically written as the work before us. It is the very spirit of Sir Walter Scott transfused into history, and it is so because the author appears to have passed over every spot of ground referred to in his book—to have studied the position of all parties whose deeds are depicted by him, and thus to have lived again amongst the men of whom he gives an account."—Morning Herald.

"One of the most remarkable and valuable contributions to Scottish history that the fertile press of our northern neighbours has ever given to the world,—a history which embraces within its range many of the most memorable incidents in the life of Mary Queen of Scots—which brings us often into the company of the veteran reformer John Knox—which records the violent deaths of no less than four successive representatives of royalty, and which pictures Edinburgh with her famous castle garrisoned and fortified, and the cannon on its battlements sweeping the city below them,—a history like this must take a prominent and permanent place in Scottish literature."—Dorchester Journal.

Lays of the Scottish Cavaliers, and

Other Poems. By William E. Aytoun, Professor of Rhetoric in the University of Edinburgh. With an Appendix; containing an Examination of the Statements in Mr Macaulay's "History of England," regarding John Graham of Claverhouse, Viscount of Dundee. A New Edition. In small 8vo, elegantly bound in gilt cloth, price 7s. 6d.

"Professor Aytoun's 'Lays of the Scottish Cavaliers'—a volume of verse which shows that Scotland has yet a poet. Full of the true fire, it now stirs and swells like a trumpet-note—now sinks in cadences sad and wild as the wail of a Highland dirge."—Quarterly Review.

"Finer ballads than those, we are bold to say, are not to be found in the language. . . . The ballads of Professor Aytoun have the life-like reality of the old pictures, and much of the warmth and fulness of their colouring. They take up an inspiring event, narrate it, and by the mere force of the narrative excite in you ennobling passion and a love of human greatness, together with deep sympathy in its sufferings. Such is the aim and scope of ballad poetry. . . . Such lines fix themselves in the memory as the first-loved melodies of childhood. We have read them with great enjoyment, and now heartily thank the author for his delightful volume, the prose notes and illustrations of which are as interesting as the verse is admirable."—Times.

"Fervidly and intensely national, Mr Aytoun sings with all the enthusiasm and all the warlike spirit of a Border minstrel; his soul is with the ancient kingdom of Scotland, and he delights to pour forth in spirit-stirring verse the story of her bravery and of her chivalry. They are racy of the people and of the age—graphic and truthful in the pictures which they conjure up before us, and ringing in every syllable with the clash of spear and morion."—Morning Chronicle.

"Mr Aytoun's 'Lays' are truly beautiful, and are perfect poems of their class, pregnant with fire, with patriotic ardour, with loyal zeal, with exquisite pathos, with noble passion. Who can hear the opening lines, descriptive of Edinburgh after the great battle of Flodden, and not feel that the minstrel's soul has caught the genuine inspiration."—Morning Post.

"There is the true stir and roll of the old ballad poetry in these lines."—Scotsman.

Domestic Verses. By Delta. Fcp. 8vo, price 5s., bound in cloth.

"The poems refer chiefly to the deaths of three beloved children. . . . The sad and solemn beauty of several of them, indeed, speaks with even painful force to the heart; the very form of verse adapted in some, as for example in the case of the 'Ode to Casa Wappy,' is so mournfully attuned that the production cannot be read without tears. This little work, altogether, will be felt as a rich boon and treat to the feeling heart."—Scotsman.

"Here is a volume in which high poetry and deep passion are united with feminine delicacy and unsullied moral purity. Here is a volume which a father may give to his daughter on her birth-day, or on some day of this gift-giving season, with a feeling not less confiding or holy than that with which he gives his child her night and morning blessing and kiss. The name of Felicia Hemans has become, and is doubtless destined to remain, one of the loved and cherished household words in connection with British poetical literature."—The Watchman.

"The best, the most accurate, and the most splendid edition that has yet been published of our English Sappho."—Sun.

"She is ever alive to the dignity of her calling and the purity of her sex. Aware of the difficulties of her art, she aspired towards excellence with untiring perseverance, and improved herself by the study of the best models, well knowing that few things easy of attainment can be worth much. Her taste thus directed her to appropriate and happy subjects; and hence it has been, as with all things of sterling value, that her writings have not been deteriorated by time. Of no one modern writer can it be affirmed, with less hesitation, that she has become an English Classic, nor, until human nature becomes very different from what it now is, can we imagine the least probability that the music of her lays will cease to soothe the ear, or the beauty of her sentiment to charm the gentle heart."—Blackwood's Magazine.

Mrs Southey's Works—

2. SOLITARY HOURS. Fcp. 8vo. A New Edition, price 5s.
3. THE BIRTHDAY, AND OTHER POEMS. Fcp. 8vo, price 7s.
4. ROBIN HOOD, AND OTHER POEMS. By R. S. and C. S. Fcap. 8vo, price 8s.

"Those sweet poems in the little volume of Solitary Hours, which for truth and depth of feeling, and for tenderness and holiness of thought, are among the most beautiful that have been produced in this generation. . . . We do not remember any recent author whose poetry is so unmixedly native; and this English complexion constitutes one of its characteristic charms. No purer models of our genuine home feeling and language could be placed in a young foreigner's hands than Mrs Southey's Works. Moreover her versification, especially in her two later volumes, is not only generally correct, but, in several instances, of very great beauty and perfection. In her last poem, The Birthday, she has attained to a still higher excellence of style."—Quarterly Review.

Poems by the Lady Flora Hastings.

With a Portrait. Fcp. 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

"All lovers of that purer poetry which catches half its grace from heaven, will seek for records of its pious beauty upon the gentle pages of this graceful book. We have but glanced at the poems, and gathered only snatches of the beauties which we are prepared to meet on deeper and closer perusal, and of which our readers shall receive their share."—Morning Post.

The Angler's Companion to the Rivers

"Indispensable in all time to come, as the very strength and grace of an Angler's Tackle and Equipment in Scotland, must and will be 'STODDART'S ANGLER'S COMPANION.'"—Blackwood's Magazine.

"Without a second's pause of hesitation, we pronounce the book the best extant as an angling guide to the salmon and trout waters of Scotland, and particularly to the famous Tweed and its many tributaries. . . . Every angler who has an ambition to become an adept in the art of killing trout and salmon by means of rod and line, should peruse assiduously Mr Stoddart's work."—Bell's Life.

"Pleasant it is to wander by the loch and stream with such a guide and companion as Mr Stoddart."
—Athenæum.

"The author is a perfect enthusiast in 'the gentle craft,' and the matter seems chiefly drawn from his own experience. A peculiar feature of the book is its detailed account of the Scottish lochs and rivers, with their tributaries. This feature renders The Angler's Companion a necessary volume to any one contemplating a piscatorial excursion in Scotland, independently of its general use as a book of instructions."—Spectator.

Lays of the Deer-Forest. A Selection from the Original Poems of John Sobieski Stuart and Charles Edward Stuart. With an Essay on Deer-Stalking and Roe-Hunting, Notes of Remarkable Incidents in Forest Sports, Traditions of the Clans, and Notices of Natural History in the Deer-Forests. In Two Volumes, Post Octavo, price 21s.

"This is, we have no hesitation in saying, the best work on deer-stalking which has yet been written; and the amount of information which it contains regarding the habits of the stag and roe, combined with the vivid pictures of which we have made such ample use, cannot fail to render it popular. In an antiquarian point of view it is also highly interesting, for it embodies a large amount of traditional lore, sketches of the clans, and fragments of Highland song, of much superior merit to those which have hitherto come into our hands. The disquisitions, too, upon the disappearance of some animals once indigenous to Scotland—such as the wolf, the elk, the wild bull, and the beaver—exhibit a great amount of research, and supply a gap which has long been wanted in the page of natural history."—Blackwood's Magazine.

"Rich with a thousand excellencies, with traits of natural history in its most attractive department, and poetised by the ardent language of keen and hereditary sportsmen."—Morning Chronicle.

Recreations of Christopher North.

In Three Volumes, Post Octavo, price £1, 11s. 6d.

"Welcome, right welcome, Christopher North; we cordially greet thee in thy new dress, thou genial and hearty old man, whose 'Ambrosian nights' have so often in imagination transported us from solitude to the social circle, and whose vivid pictures of flood and fell, of loch and glen, have carried us in thought from the smoke, din, and pent-up opulence of London, to the rushing stream, or tranquil tarn, or those mountain ranges," &c.—Times.

"Delightful volumes—full of fun and fervour, power and pathos—of deep feeling and light-hearted gaiety—of impassioned language, rolling along in the strength and majesty of genuine eloquence—and of familiar gossip, tripping it lightly over the merrier pages."—Scotsman.

The Moor and the Loch: containing

Minute Instructions in all Highland Sports, from the Red-Deer and Wild Swan, Salmon, and Salmo-Ferox, to the Snipe, Teal, and Burn Trout. With remarks upon the Wild Birds and Beasts of the Scottish Mountain. By John Colquhoun, Esq. A New Edition, being the Third, with which is incorporated "ROCKS AND RIVERS," by the same Author. In One Vol., with Illustrations, price 12s. 6d.

"Mr Colquhoun is one of the increasing class of naturalist sportsmen who combine an ardent love and nice observation of nature with surpassing skill in the death-dealing art. Of the various amateurs we remember, he is facile princeps, from the solidity of his matter, and the native power of his style. He has the prejudices of his craft and his Highland home; but they are the genuine feelings of his mind, not a taste simulated to spin a paragraph or point a period. As a sportsman he strikes us as of the first class, owing to the variety of his pursuits. Nothing comes amiss to him. In deer-stalking or roebuck-shooting he is at home; all that haunt the 'Moor and the Loch,' with the River in addition—whether of grouse or other game, fish or waterfowl—all are within his dominion."—Spectator.

Life in the "Far West." By the late

George F. Ruxton, Esq., Author of "Travels in Mexico." A New Edition. Fcp. 8vo, price 4s.

"One of the most fascinating productions in this class of literature. The intensely graphic force with which the scenes and characters are delineated, and which is the natural result of the author's personal familiarity with the originals of the pictures drawn by his pen, and of his keen powers of observation, transports the reader's mind involuntarily into the Far West itself, among the Red hunters and warriors, and the American trappers and mountaineers. To read the volume is almost equal to a personal visit to those romantic regions, and their savage and half-savage inhabitants—so vivid is the impression which the perusal of Mr Ruxton's sketches leaves on the imagination."—John Bull.

"One of the most daring and resolute of modern travellers. . . . A volume fuller of excitement is seldom submitted to the public."—Athenæum.

Hudson's Bay; or, Every-day Life

SCENES IN THE WILDS OF NORTH AMERICA. By Robert M. Ballantyne. Post 8vo, with Illustrations, 9s.

"An able, graphic, and spirited description, not merely of interesting journeys and adventures, throughout these wild and uncultivated regions, but a full and well written account of the formation, object, and trade of the Company, of the Indian tribes, and much valuable and useful information upon almost every matter connected with the country."—Perth Constitutional.

Men and Manners in America. By the Author of "Cyril Thornton." A New Edition, with a Portrait of the Author, and Letters written by him during his Journey through the United States. Fcap. 8vo, price 7s. 6d.

"Though many excellent volumes have since been published, not one has superseded it as a standard and safe authority. Other travellers have confirmed its accuracy without adding much to its information. . . . But this edition has another advantage. It is enriched with the private letters he wrote to his friends from America, in which his first impressions are recorded without concealment."—Britannia.

Impressions and Experiences of the WEST INDIES and NORTH AMERICA in 1849. By Robert Baird, A.M. In Two Volumes, Post Octavo, price 21s.

"The reader will find in the present work a most faithful and attractive description of the countries which the author has visited—the West Indies, Canada, and the United States—as regards both their natural features and scenery, and the character, the manners, and habits of the inhabitants, interspersed with many interesting traits and incidents, forming altogether a tourist's note-book and traveller's guide of the very best class."—John Bull.

Leaves from the Journal of a Subal-

TERN, DURING THE CAMPAIGN IN THE PUNJAUB, 1848-49. In crown 8vo, price 6s.

"An extremely graphic, animated narrative of events, most readable from the first page to the last, does much more to convey to the reader's mind a just and vivid conception of the lights and shadows of life in an Indian camp—the suspense before the coming strife, the wild excitement of the fray, and the painful reaction of the inactivity which succeeds."—Atlas, July 1, 1849.

"This volume presents, in a very pleasing form, an accurate account of some of the most striking features in the late campaign of this portion of British India. . . . A more lively, rattling description of what a subaltern really experiences on service, including the horrible work he does, and the horrible sights he sees, was never written."—Economist, July 14, 1849.

Ten Thousand a-Year. A New Edition. By Samuel Warren, Esq., F.R.S. Three Volumes fcap. 8vo, price 18s.

"Ten Thousand a-Year is perhaps destined, in British literature, to some such rank as Don Quixote holds in that of Spain."—American Journal.

"We consider Gammon the real hero in this mixed drama, which at once resembles Othello and les Plaideurs; the Satan of the Epopœia, which brings to one's memory Paradise Lost and the Lutrin. Consummate skill; perfect hypocrisy; indomitable energy; unbounded ambition—there is Gammon!"—Revue des deux Mondes.

The Diary of a Late Physician. By Samuel Warren, Esq., F.R.S. A New Edition. Complete in Two Volumes, price 12s.

"We know of no book in the English language so calculated to rivet the attention, and awaken the purest and deepest sympathies of the heart, as the Diary of a Late Physician. The man who has not read these tales has yet to learn a lesson in the mysteries of human nature; and though Ten Thousand a-Year may, as a literary composition, claim precedence, we think it lacks something—a very little—of that truthful simplicity, that trusting and religious fervour, that refines every sentiment and hallows every aspiration inspired by the elder work."—Oxford and Cambridge Review.

Now and Then. By Samuel Warren, Esq., F.R.S. A New Edition, with the Author's last Corrections and a Preface. In One volume royal post 8vo, price 10s. 6d.

"Such is the outline of Mr Warren's present work—a vindication, in beautiful prose, of the 'ways of God to man.' A grander moral is not to be found than that which dwells upon the reader's mind when the book is closed; conveyed, too, as it is, in language as masculine and eloquent as any the English tongue can furnish."—Times.

"It is sculpture, not painting, that we have here to deal with. The characters are few, the events simple; and both characters and events stand broadly and boldly out, chiselled into big, massive, rigid proportions. It is a book displaying peculiar and remarkable talents. In parts the narration is of breathless interest. There is an utter and blessed absence of conventionalism about the tale; and it is invested with a species of severe epic grandeur, which, as it were, overshadows the mind."—Morning Chronicle.

The Moral, Social, and Professional DUTIES OF ATTORNEYS AND SOLICITORS. By Samuel Warren, Esq., F.R.S., one of Her Majesty's Counsel. Second Edition. In One thick Vol., fcp. 8vo, price 9s.

A Memoir of John Philpot Curran.

With SKETCHES of his CONTEMPORARIES. By Charles Phillips, Esq., A.B., one of her Majesty's Commissioners of the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors. Octavo, with a Portrait. Price 12s. 6d.

The present work, while embracing the more valuable portion of the Recollections of Curran formerly published by Mr Phillips, mainly consists of hitherto unpublished matter, in the drawing up of which the author has been for some time engaged. It comprises Sketches and Anecdotes of Flood and Grattan, Clare, Tone, Norbury and his Court, Bushe, Plunket, Dean Kirwan, Hamilton Rowan, Clonmell, O'Connell, Emmett, &c.; with specimens of their eloquence, and very copious extracts from the speeches of Curran.

"It may seem an omission, in a work professing to give the Orators as well as the Statesmen of the last age, that Curran should not appear among them—the greatest orator, after Grattan and Plunket, that Ireland has produced, and in every respect worthy of being placed on a line with those great masters of speech. But there is really an insuperable difficulty in attempting a task which has been so immitably performed already, and within only a few years. Mr C. Phillips's sketch of his friend is certainly one of the most extraordinary pieces of biography every produced. Nothing can be more lively and picturesque than its representation of the famous original. The reader of it can hardly be said not to have known Curran and Curran's contemporaries. It has been justly said of this admirable work, that it is Boswell minus Bozzy. No library should be without such a piece."—LORD BROUGHAM'S Historical Sketches of Statesmen.

The Political Life of the Right Hon.

EDMUND BURKE. A Memoir. By the Rev. George Croly, L.L.D., Rector of St Stephen's, Walbrook, London. In Two Volumes, post 8vo, price 18s.

"We have quoted enough, and more than enough, to convince the most sceptical of the originality, eloquence, and power of these remarkable volumes. We regard them as a valuable contribution to our national literature, as an effectual antidote to revolutionary principles, and as a masterly analysis of the mind and writings of the greatest philosopher and statesman of our history."—The Britannia.

Letters of Eminent Persons addressed to DAVID HUME. In 8vo, price 10s. 6d.

"It is altogether one of the most valuable and instructive collection of letters which has seen the light for many years—abounding in points of great and varied interest for the general reader, while it furnishes a rich store of materials for the more recondite purposes of the student of literary, social, and political history."—Glasgow Constitutional.

Annals of the Peninsular Campaigns.

By Thomas Hamilton, Esq., late of the 29th Regiment, Author of "Cyril Thornton," "Men and Manners in America," &c. A New Edition, Revised and Augmented by FREDERICK HARDMAN, Esq., Author of "Peninsular Scenes and Sketches," &c. In One Volume Octavo. Price 16s. Cloth.

"Of the chief writers, (on this subject,) Captain Hamilton's work comes nearest to historical calmness and impartiality. . . . Sometimes the coldness and matter-of-factness with which the most astounding incidents and atrocities are chronicled, serves more effectually to impress the thinking reader with the horrors of the contest, than when his sympathies are directly demanded by the fine writing of the historian. The value of Captain Hamilton's work is very greatly increased, in the present edition, by the labours of Mr Hardman."—Scotsman.

Notes on North America ; Agricultural, ECONOMICAL, AND SOCIAL. By James F. W. Johnston, F.R.SS. L. & E., &c. &c. Author of "Lectures on Agricultural Chemistry and Geology," &c. In Two Vols. post 8vo, with a Map and other Illustrations, price 21s.

"Professor Johnston's admirable Notes. . . . On each and all of these topics the author's knowledge of science, and its practical relations with agriculture, enabled him to obtain very clear and accurate views, which he has set forth in a way to render his book the very best manual for intelligent emigrants; whilst, to the British agriculturist, and general reader, it conveys a more complete conception of the social, economical, and agricultural condition of these prosperous regions, than all that has hitherto been written on North America."—Economist.

"A book in every respect valuable and interesting, one whose pages may be read with unflagging attention for the interest of the narrative they contain—the keen, shrewd, northern wisdom that breaks out every here and there; but which will be read and studied by every educated landowner and agriculturist in Great Britain and Ireland, for the mass of solid and important information it condenses within its small compass."—Saunders' News Letter.

Greece under the Romans. An Historical

View of the Condition of the Greek Nation, from the Time of its Conquest by the Romans, until the Extinction of the Roman Empire in the East, B.C. 146—A.D. 717. By George Finlay, K.R.G. Octavo, price 16s.

" . . . His work is therefore learned and profound. It throws a flood of light upon an important though obscure portion of Grecian history. . . . In the essential requisites of fidelity, accuracy, and learning, Mr Finlay bears a favourable comparison with any historical writer of our day."—North American Review.

"The History of Greece under the Romans has been ably written by Mr Finlay."—Quarterly Review.

Ancient and Modern Art, Historical and Critical. By George Cleghorn, Esq., of Weens. Second Edition, Two Volumes, Foolscep Octavo. Price 12s.

"A brief yet comprehensive sketch, historical and critical, of ancient and modern art, from the earliest up to the present time. . . . We have seldom perused a work of a more popular character, from which we have derived more genuine delight, or by which our limited and untutored perceptions of the beauties of art have been more assisted and enlightened, than the one we have now the additional pleasure of recommending to a place in every public library, and on the table of every man who values art, refinement, elegance, and taste."—Morning Post.

Lectures in Divinity. By the late

George Hill, D.D., Principal of St Mary's College, St Andrews. A New Edition. One Vol. 8vo, 14s.

"I am not sure if I can recommend a more complete manual of divinity than the one I have now adverted to. . . . I know of no treatise which professes to exhibit the whole range of theological doctrine, and does it in more of a lucidus ordo than the one that we have fixed upon."—Dr Chalmers.

Lectures on the History of Literature,

ANCIENT and MODERN. From the German of Frederick Schlegel. In One Vol. foolscap 8vo, price 5s.

"Form the most luminous, comprehensive, and philosophical survey of the history of literature which our own age has produced."—Britannia.

"A wonderful performance,—better than anything we as yet have on the subject in our own language."—Quarterly Review.

"Though concise, Schlegel's work is so comprehensive in its range, that it is alone almost sufficient to make the reader a literary person."—Literary Gazette.

"Forming by far the most valuable repertory of statistics at the command of any country in Europe."—Quarterly Review.

"As a statistical book of reference, the work is valuable—more so, in our estimation, than many works which make a greater parade of scientific forms. . . . To sum up more specifically, there are no fewer than 876 articles, each furnishing a complete monograph of a parish, or united group of parishes. The parishes of every county are classed together; to each a full index of matter is added, and to the whole work is appended a general index, compiled on the same principle. There is also an alphabetical index of parishes, giving their population as shown by the last census, and referring to the volume and page where each is described. Thus the New Statistical Account of Scotland unites, with the massive character and readableness of a systematic view of Scottish statistics and geography, the utility of a geographical and statistical dictionary of Scotland."—Spectator.

“In so far as we know, Mr Hay is the first and only modern artist who has entered upon the study of these subjects without the trammels of prejudice and authority. Setting aside the ordinances of fashion, as well as the dicta of speculation, he has sought the foundation of his profession in the properties of light, and in the laws of visual sensation, by which these properties are recognised and modified. The truths to which he has appealed are fundamental and irrefragable; and the conclusions which he has deduced from them will admit of no modification either from taste or fashion. . . . We have derived the greatest pleasure from the perusal of these works. They are composed with accuracy, and even elegance. His opinions and views are distinctly brought before the reader, and stated with that modesty which characterises genius, and that firmness which indicates truth.”—SIR DAVID BREWSTER in the Edinburgh Review.

"You have rendered a most essential service to the dissemination of a knowledge of cosmography."—The Baron Von Humboldt.

"We know of no work of which the methods are so well fitted for the instruction of those who come ignorantly to the subject."—Quarterly Review.

"Embodies the materials of many volumes, the results of long years of research: and exhibits the most valuable thoughts of the most distinguished men of the age pictured visibly to the eye."—Edinburgh Review.

"The book before us is, in short, a graphic cyclopædia of the Sciences—an Atlas of human knowledge done into maps."—Athenæum.

"One of the best and most practical works for scientific navigation that has for a long time come under our notice."—Shipping and Mercantile Gazette.

"No study more agreeable can be conceived than an Atlas of Maps of this kind. There is no department in all the vast region of which we have been writing, but has its appropriate illustration. From the depths of the ocean to the heights of the atmosphere, the whole theatre in which God conducts our drama of animated nature is exposed. We shall turn to the largest and most numerous works of this kind with which science has lately obliged the world—the superb 'Physical Atlas' of Johnston—and endeavour to explain the series of panoramas of air, water, earth, and organic existence which its successive plates present to us."—Dublin University Magazine.

"It is a gigantic monument of the genius of science of the present day."—New York Literary World.

The Physical Atlas. Reduced from the Imperial Folio. For the Use of Colleges, Academies, and Families. By A. Keith Johnston, F.R.S.E., &c. &c. This Edition contains TWENTY-FIVE MAPS, including a PALÆONTOLOGICAL and GEOLOGICAL MAP of the BRITISH ISLANDS. With DESCRIPTIVE LETTERPRESS, and a VERY COPIOUS INDEX. In Imperial Quarto, handsomely bound, half-morocco, price £2, 12s. 6d.

"This Atlas is executed with remarkable care, and is as accurate, and, for all educational purposes, as valuable as the splendid large work (by the same author) which has now a European reputation."—Eclectic Review.

"We do not remember a contribution to School Libraries, and to the resources of School and University Teachers, in all respects so important as the book now before us."—Examiner.

"We would say a word to our fair readers. Hitherto works on the physical sciences required so much study—their abstract truths were so difficult to those who had not gone through a previous laborious preparation, that few ladies seemed to delight in the paths of Mrs Somerville. But now the way is open—a broad, an easy, a delightful way—whereby they may traverse the ways of nature with a railway speed, and acquire more knowledge of the phenomena of our globe in a week, than was enjoyed some time ago after the labour of a life of persevering inquiry."—Dublin Mail.

"To the scholar, to the student, and to the already large yet daily increasing multitude of inquirers who cultivate natural science, the Physical Atlas is a treasure of incalculable value. It brings before the mind's eye in one grand panoramic view, and in a form clear, definite, and easily comprehensible, all the facts at present known relative to the great subjects of which it treats, and may be regarded as a lucid epitome of a thousand scattered volumes, more or less intrinsically valuable, of which it contains the heart and substance."—Blackwood's Magazine.

THE FORESTER. A Practical Treatise on the Formation, Draining, and Fencing of Plantations; the Planting, Rearing, and Management of Forest Trees; the Cutting and Preparation of Wood for Sale: with an Improved Process for the Transplantation of Trees of Large Size. By James Brown, Forester, Arniston. A New Edition, greatly enlarged, with 109 Illustrations engraved on wood, in demy 8vo, price 21s.

“By a person who has for fifteen years had his attention almost entirely directed to the rearing of forest trees, and whose observations are conveyed in a clear and readily intelligible manner. The subject is methodically treated of in all its departments, from the laying out of the ground, the fencing any draining, to the cutting down of the trees, and the manner in which the wood ought to be prepared for the market.”—Scottish Farmer.

“Mr James Brown, the forester at Arniston, near Dalkeith, has published his views of the subject in a sensible, concise, and useful manner: and we can now refer to his volume as the book to be recommended.”—Gardeners' Chronicle.

AGRICULTURAL PHYSIOLOGY, Animal and Vegetable. An attempt to give, in popular language, an outline of the leading principles of the Physiology of Animals and Plants, paying most attention to those principles which bear upon the art of the Manufacturer of Animal and Vegetable Food. By T. Lindley Kemp, M.D. In small 8vo, with numerous Illustrations. Price 6s. 6d.

“The work before us is a portable compendium, designed for the use of practical agriculturists, and teaching the structure of the organs, and their functions, of the animal kingdom. The little book is a model of condensation, embodying information as intensely interesting as it is profoundly useful. It is plainly written, the best authorities cited, and, where plates or diagrams are necessary to explain the text, they are well and abundantly given.”—Bell's Life.

PRACTICAL VENTILATION as applied to Public, Domestic, and Agricultural Structures. Being an elucidation of Plans, and suggestions of easy application, for ventilating every species of Architectural Structure; with Remarks on Heating, Construction of Fire-places, Cure of Smoky Chimneys; and an Appendix, on the Ventilation of Ships, Steamboats, and Railway Carriages. By R. S. Burn, Engineer. Crown Octavo, price 6s.

“By far the most practical treatise on ventilation and warming that we have met with. . . . So simple and practical in the plans it recommends that none can fail to understand them, or need be in any way alarmed at the expense of carrying them out.”—Glasgow Constitutional.

“We commend the work.”—Mark Lane Express.

“An excellent manual.”—Morning Chronicle.

“A more worthy and excellent plan could not have been conceived or better executed.”—Carlisle Patriot.

I.
EXPERIMENTAL AGRICULTURE. Being the Results of Past, and suggestions for Future, Experiments in Scientific and Practical Agriculture.

By James F. W. Johnston, F.R.S.S. L. & E., &c. In Octavo, price 8s.

"A very valuable book for the agriculturist, both as a warning and as a guide. . . . It is only by the combination of science and practice like that exhibited, that British farming can successfully compete with the altered state of the world."—Spectator.

"Whoever, in fine, wishes to obtain a succinct and satisfactory account of all that has been done in the field of agricultural experiment during the last eight or nine years, given in such a form as to indicate at once the nature of the results that have been obtained by the application of each particular substance, has now, in this volume, the means of readily obtaining all the information that he can require; while every one who intends to institute experiments in future will find in it the necessary suggestions and directions, with information as to what has already been accomplished."—Scottish Farmer.

II.
LECTURES ON AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTRY AND

Geology. A New Edition, in One large Volume octavo, price 24s.

This Edition, besides embracing the researches of other chemists, contains the result of nearly 2000 analyses, in connection with Scientific Agriculture, made in the Laboratory of the Author since the publication of the former Edition, and exhibits a full view of the actual state of our knowledge upon this important branch.

"A valuable and interesting course of Lectures."—Quarterly Review.

"The most complete account of Agricultural Chemistry we possess."—Royal Agricultural Journal.

"Unquestionably the most important contribution that has recently been made to popular science, and destined to exert an extensively beneficial influence in this country."—Sullivan's American Journal of Science, (Rev. of the American Edition.)

"A perfect storehouse of chemistry, geology, and agricultural science."—Spectator.

III.
ELEMENTS OF AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTRY AND

Geology. A New Edition, greatly enlarged, price 6s.

"The style is delightfully clear, the facts important, and brought to bear on the daily business of the farmer's life with startling effect."—Britannia.

"Nothing hitherto published has at all equalled it, both as regards true science and sound common sense."—Quarterly Journal of Agriculture.

"Of all the different works which have lately been published on the Chemistry of Agriculture, that now before us appears to be most likely to be of real service to the practical man."—Gardeners Magazine.

IV.
A CATECHISM OF AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTRY

and Geology. A New Edition, being the 27th, entirely re-written, price 1s.

"We would recommend every farmer in Britain, let his knowledge of agriculture be extended or limited, to procure a copy of the Catechism for himself; and this recommendation we would support by the facts, that the memories of the initiated are apt to get rusty—so much so, that a little rubbing up may be necessary; while the uninitiated, unaware of the science of agricultural chemistry, by a simple perusal will be able to discover it clearly, and mould its principles to obtain the highest advantage to themselves."—Scientific Agriculturist.

"La lecture de ce petit livre donnera, nous en sommes certains, à plus d'un lecteur pratique, des inductions qui lui feront appercevoir la cause des sommes et des succès éprouvés en agriculture; resultats trop souvent attribués par l'aveugle routine au hasard ou à des circonstances tout à fait étrangères."—French Translation.

V.
ON THE USE OF LIME IN AGRICULTURE. In

One volume foolscap 8vo, price 6s.

"Its title indicates its importance. Everything that can be said of lime as a manure is stated, not at random or hearsay, but according to tests made with chemical certitude, and verified by productive results. It is a great addition to the art of preparing and using one of the best and most universally appropriate of artificial manures."—Bell's Life.

Professor Johnston.

"The best practical book I have ever met with."

Times.

"We assure agricultural students that they will derive both pleasure and profit from a diligent perusal of this clear directory to rural labour. The experienced farmer will perhaps think that Mr Stephens dwells upon some matters too simple or too trite to need explanation; but we regard this as a fault leaning to virtue's side in an instructional book. The young are often ashamed to ask for an explanation of simple things, and are too often discouraged by an indolent or supercilious teacher if they do. But Mr Stephens entirely escapes this error, for he indicates every step the young farmer should take, and, one by one, explains their several bearings. . . . The business matter of a farm is divided by Mr Stephens into four parts, each bearing the name of the season that influences the operations that are performed in it. By this arrangement every operation is described as it takes its turn in the fields—described, we must in justice to the author observe, in so detailed and perspicuous a narrative, that no attentive reader can fail to comprehend the course he ought in practice to pursue. . . . We have thoroughly examined these volumes; but to give a full notice of their varied and valuable contents would occupy a larger space than we can conveniently devote to their discussion; we therefore, in general terms, commend them to the careful study of every young man who wishes to become a good practical farmer."

Editor of American Reprint.

"No farmer, who thirsts for knowledge himself, or who aspires to have his son rise 'to the true post of honour'—the dignified station of an intellectual and accomplished agriculturist—can justifiably deny himself such a work."

The Magnet.

"It is one of the chief recommendations of this work that its instructions are both clear and comprehensive, so that they are quickly understood and their merits appreciated; whilst the profusion of excellent cuts with which the text is embellished brings the subjects treated upon fairly under the farmer's observation. There are few books of so high a character, or so eminently useful as this."

Farmers' Magazine.

"A work, the excellence of which is too well known to need any remarks of ours."

Inverness Courier.

"Mr Stephens has tasked himself to produce a great work—the most splendid we possess on the subject; and his title hardly conveys the full extent of his plan, which is more comprehensive and highly finished than any other rural cyclopædia we possess."

Bell's Messenger.

"Exhibiting in every page the combination of large experience, extensive observation, and a cultivated mind. . . . One of the most unique and valuable works to be found within the range of agricultural literature."

Bell's Life.

"We know of no single agricultural work to be compared with this. . . . Nothing can be more disinterestedly earnest than our recommendation of the 'Book of the Farm.'"

Agricultural Gazette.

"One of the completest works on agriculture of which our literature can boast."

Scottish Farmer.

"A most accurate and useful digest of all that has been ascertained by observation, experiment, and experience in relation to agriculture, more especially as conducted in our own country. By very many of the most enlightened and enterprising farmers and proprietors in Scotland, we know it has been held in the greatest estimation; and were we to seek information on any particular subject connected with rural affairs, it is certainly the book to which we should in the first instance refer."

Newcastle Journal.

"Of the excellence of this agricultural treatise there can be but one opinion; it is the very best publication of the kind, whether as regards arrangement, typography, or beauty of illustration. The style is adapted to the subject—plain and concise. The work presents at once the accumulations of experience and the discoveries of science."

Sherbourne Journal.

"One of the least theoretical of any of the numerous works on scientific agriculture. If it had been written by a tenant-farmer himself its language could not have been plainer, or its operations of a more practical character. . . . Meanwhile, we recommend it to the earnest attention of every one connected with the soil."

"I hardly expected, from the title, to have found such complete directions for marine surveying, a branch of the subject that has been too little attended to,—especially as to the proper observations on the rise and fall of the tides. I should like to see the book in every midshipman's berth in the Royal Navy."—CAPTAIN JOHN WASHINGTON, R.N., one of the Admiralty Marine Surveyors.

"His new and improved methods will remain a lasting monument of the zeal, industry, and genius that introduced them. Wherever ornament makes any part of the object of the cultivator, the Planter's Guide will be found to be his best director; pointing out, as it does, the means of executing with success the designs that taste may have conceived for the embellishment of the landscape. It teaches not merely the art of planting, but the principles upon which the art is founded; and supplies us not merely with rules but with reasons."—Edinburgh Review.

PHYSIOLOGY. By Dr G. J. Mulder, Professor of Chemistry in the University of Utrecht. With an Introduction and Notes by Professor Johnston. In 8vo, with 22 Engravings, coloured and plain. Price 30s. bound in cloth.

"In introducing the following work to the British public, I believe I am rendering a service to the science of the country. The patient research by which it is characterised, and the sober sagacity of the views it contains, cannot fail to recommend it to that large portion of the community who are now interested in the application of vegetable and animal physiology to agriculture and to medicine. With every opinion expressed by the author I do not concur, and I have here and there ventured to add brief notes, where the difference of opinion appeared to be of sufficient moment; but in the general views which the book contains, I anticipate that the soundest of our scientific men will agree with me in concurring."—Advertisement by Professor Johnston.
